Introduced by:

William A. Parkinson

Relative to recognizing the Micronesia Mall management on the occasion of the retirement of the SuperTrain and commending them for 34 years of the SuperTrain service to the people of Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, The Mall's first SuperTrain debuted on Friday, November 23, 1990 an iconic train whistle was heard for the first time in the center court of Micronesia Mall announcing the arrival of Santa Claus and the beginning of what was to become a family holiday tradition called the SuperTrain; and

WHEREAS, This bright red and gold electric train ride that circumnavigated the mall's 10,000 square foot center court was purchased for the mall from the Italian amusement ride company Zamperla Amusement Group by the mall's marketing and advertising manager, Phillip Schrage; and

WHEREAS, Famous for creating and manufacturing large rides for major amusement parks around the world, Zamperla also manufactured rides for county fairs that could be disassembled and trucked from county to county; and

WHEREAS, The SuperTrain wasn't permanent and was only featured during the weeks before Christmas and Easter, easy assembly and disassembly were essential. What has made the SuperTrain so much fun with generations of families and tourists is because it is a smile generating selfie experience for the young and the young at heart, never gets old; now therefore, be it
