Relative to recognizing the observance of "Kimchi Day" on November 22, 2023; and to encouraging the continued cooperation and cross-cultural exchanges with regional partners in agricultural development and food trade.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA TRENTAI SIETTE NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, kimchi, a dish originating from Korea, has a storied history dating back over two thousand (2,000) years; and it has become a fundamental part of Korean cuisine that was originally crafted as a means of preserving vegetables through fermentation; and

WHEREAS, the introduction of chili peppers to kimchi in the sixteenth (16th) century transformed its flavor profile, marking a significant milestone in its evolution and leading to various regional adaptations and innovations with over two hundred (200) types of kimchi available; and

WHEREAS, known for its significant health benefits, kimchi is an excellent source of beta-carotene, calcium, potassium, dietary fiber, and vitamins A, B, C, and K, as well as being a vegetable probiotic food; and

WHEREAS, the historical and cultural importance of kimchi extends beyond its culinary aspects, being deeply rooted in Korean heritage; and recipes have been passed down through many generations, symbolizing the unity and traditions of Korean families, as the process of making kimchi brings communities together with residents of entire neighborhoods assisting each other to prepare kimchi; and

WHEREAS, the traditional process of making kimchi, known as "kimjang" was officially recognized in 2013 by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) on its Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity; and

WHEREAS, the globalization of kimchi has elevated its status to becoming a cherished dish that is renowned for its unique taste and nutritional benefits, thus fostering cross-cultural exchanges and appreciation; and

WHEREAS, the migration of the Korean people to Guam has brought many Korean influences to the island, including through foods such as kimchi; and the people of Guam have created their own unique version of kimchi, which has become a beloved dish on Guam's fiesta tables. Moreover, Korean cuisine and food items remain popular staples in households on Guam with countless grocery stores, restaurants, and small businesses supplying an assortment of Korean food and agricultural products to the island; and

WHEREAS, November 22 is celebrated as "Kimchi Day" in the Republic of Korea, highlighting the significant contributions of South Korea's agricultural and culinary industries to the global economy and culture; and Liheslaturan Guåhan encourages the continued cross-cultural and economic exchanges within our region, particularly through agricultural, fisheries, and food trade development; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina Trentai Siette Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of Liheslaturan Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize the observance of "Kimchi Day" on November 22, 2023; and encourage the continued cooperation and cross-cultural exchanges with regional partners in agricultural development and food trade; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Kim Choon Jin, CEO of Korea Agro-Fisheries & Food Trade Corporation; to Nina K. Lee, President, World Federation of Overseas Korean Traders Association, Guam U.S.A. Chapter; to the Korean Association of Guam; to the Korean Women's Association of Guam; to the Guam Korean Chamber of Commerce; to the Honorable Carl T.C. Gutierrez, President & CEO of the Guam Visitors Bureau; to the Honorable Kim In Kook, Consul and Head of Mission of the Consulate of the Republic of Korea in Hagåtña; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.
