Relative to recognizing, thanking and commending the Reverend Father Kenneth Carriveau, Ph.D., for his multi-faceted contributions in developing opportunities throughout Micronesia for its people to compete and succeed in the 21st century.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Dr. Kenneth Louis Carriveau, Sr., was born on March 24, 1942, in Bay City, Michigan, to his proud parents, Burton Leo and Bertha Helen Carriveau; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau is the eldest of three siblings, and has a brother, Robert Carriveau; and a sister, Sherry Carriveau McDonald; and
WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau graduated from Holy Ghost Seminary on June 5, 1960; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau joined the congregation of the Holy Ghost Fathers, taking simple vows at the novitiate in Ridgefield, Connecticut, on August 22, 1961; and

WHEREAS after three (3) years, Kenneth left the seminary and attended Duquesne University, where he met his wife-to-be, Helen Vivian Leon Guerrero, who was studying Spanish at Duquesne University, after attending Mass one Sunday at the Duquesne University Chapel; and

WHEREAS, Carriveau married the love of his life, Helen Vivian Leon Guerrero, on June 3, 1967, at the Duquesne University Chapel in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, where they met; and

WHEREAS, in 1968, Dr. Carriveau and his beautiful wife moved to Guam, Helen’s home; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau and his wife, Helen, had two children: a son, Kenneth Louis Carriveau, Jr., who is married to Llolanda Gayle Carriveau, and they have two children, Katherine Luisa and Kieran Lee Carriveau; and a daughter, Monique Rochelle Carriveau Storie, who is married to Brett Marlan Storie, and they have a son, Ethan Thomas Storie; and

WHEREAS, on June 6, 1965, Dr. Carriveau received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy and Classical Languages from Duquesne University in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; and

WHEREAS, on August 9, 1966, Dr. Carriveau received his Masters of Library Science degree from the University of Pittsburg (Pittsburg, Pennsylvania); and

WHEREAS, in April 1973, Dr. Carriveau received his Advanced Certificate in Library Science from the University of Pittsburg (Pittsburg, Pennsylvania); and
WHEREAS, in December 1975, Dr. Carriveau received his Doctorate of Philosophy in Educational Communications and Technology from the University of Pittsburg (Pittsburg, Pennsylvania); and

WHEREAS, upon his arrival on Guam in 1968, Dr. Carriveau worked as a Librarian at the University of Guam’s RFK Library; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau held various faculty and administrative positions during his twenty-six (26) year tenure at the University of Guam; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau’s first position at the University of Guam was Acquisitions Librarian, Dean of Library Services, College of Education, where he taught Library Science, Audio-Visual Education, and Foundations in Education; and

WHEREAS, the WASC had recommended that an institutional research position was necessary, and then UOG President Jose Cruz asked Dr. Carriveau to serve as the UOG’s first IR because of his years of service as the University’s Accreditation Liaison Officer; and

WHEREAS, as Dean of Library Services, Dr. Carriveau agreed to house a telecommunications project that established distance education and communication within Micronesia, and has since developed into UOG’s current TADEO program; and

WHEREAS, upon completion of that duty, Dr. Carriveau transferred to the Richard Flores Taitano Micronesian Area Research Center (MARC) to work on the Micronesian Area Tropical Agriculture Bibliographic Database Project, also known as (MATABDB); and from 1976 to 1979, Dr. Carriveau served simultaneously as Dean of Library Services and Director of MARC; and

WHEREAS, in 1988, Dr. Carriveau retired as Professor Emeritus of Library Science; and after his retirement from the University of Guam and his involvement with other organizations, Dr. Carriveau continued to stay involved with the University through his association with the Society of Professors Emeritus and Retired Professors, and by writing grant proposals for the Richard Flores Taitano Micronesian Area Research Center; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau served as Regional Project Director for the Pacific Postsecondary Education Council’s TRIO program; he served as President of the Guam Restaurant and Hotel Association for two (2) years; and he served as Superintendent of Catholic Schools; and

WHEREAS, upon his wife’s passing, Dr. Carriveau entered the Blessed John XXII National Seminary in Weston, Massachusetts, a house of formation for second career men, where in May 2003, he received his Master of Divinity; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Carriveau was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on June 14, 2003, and appointed to the San Isidro Catholic Church, where he served as Pastor and Spiritual Director of the community of Malojloj for six (6) years; and

WHEREAS, one of Dr. Carriveau’s proudest accomplishments, among many others, was helping to establish the Pan-Pacific Education and Communication Experiments by Satellite program (PEACESAT), which was introduced at the UOG through the Library. Doug Trail and Dr. Carriveau had worked together to get it established, and turned it over to the College of Education for further development, where it has been a boon to the University ever since; and

WHEREAS, another proud accomplishment of Dr. Carriveau was when he collaborated with the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences in developing the Micronesian Area Tropical Agriculture Bibliographic Database (MATABDB) Project, which continues as the Guam and Micronesia Virtual Library. MATABDB was primarily a document retrieval system with copies of the documents in the Guam & Micronesia Collection, whereas the Virtual Library now allows UOG students and scholars worldwide to access UOG publications and other documents about the Micronesian region online; now therefore, be it
RESOLVED, that I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize, commend and thank the Reverend Father Kenneth Cariveau, Ph.D., for his multi-faceted contributions in developing opportunities throughout Micronesia for its people to compete and succeed in the 21st century; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to the Reverend Father Kenneth L. Carriveau, Ph.D.; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THIS 18TH DAY OF FEBRUARY 2013.
