Relative to commending and congratulating Ms. Deanna Komiyama on being named as the 2013 “Social Work Student of the Year” by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), Guam Chapter, and to further extending a warm and sincere Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu’s Ma’ase’ to Deanna for her hard work and dedication in assisting with the needs of the most vulnerable population in our island community.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATORAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, Ms. Deanna Matsu Komiyama was born and raised in the village of Malugay, and is the daughter of Velma Komiyama and the late William Komiyama Sr.; and

WHEREAS, Deanna received her Associate of Science degree in Marketing from the Guam Community College (GCC) in the spring of 2005. While at GCC, she was an active student and held the position of President of the marketing organization, Delta Epsilon Chi (DECH); and

WHEREAS, Deanna became Guam’s very first representative as an altar server, and has been a Catechist (SLH), working with youth ages 10 and up, focusing on ways to attract and engage youth to come back to the church through activities, fundraisers and community events; and

WHEREAS, currently, Deanna is a full-time student at the University of Guam (UOG), where she is a senior in the Bachelor of Social Work program, and expects to graduate in the spring. She has completed field placements at St. Isidro’s and at Sanctuary, Incorporated, gaining and exhibiting good work ethics and professionalism in preparation for the field of social work; and

WHEREAS, Deanna has been an active member of the Social Work Student Alliance Organization at UOG over the past year, and she is currently the president of the organization. As the president of the organization, Deanna strives to carry on the practice of social justice and equality, starting with her first role. She enjoys working together with the organization to let the community know about social work and its reputation of being a helping profession; and

WHEREAS, overall, Deanna has shown great passion, interest and willingness in helping others, and anyone who comes to know her can attest that this new found path to the social work profession greatly fits her; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Komiyama has been and continues to be an inspiration to others, especially for other students in the social work program, as she is sharing example of a great leader and motivator. She is known for her ability to lead others when under pressure and be very supportive and encouraging where challenges are present. She has proven herself to be a leader that is reliable, dependable and trustworthy; and

WHEREAS, as a student in the social work program, Deanna has made good-faith efforts and contributions for program events by participating and being involved more than needed, while expecting nothing but a good outcome for all in return; and

WHEREAS, the best reflection of Deanna’s skills lies in her remarkable ability to be the voice for others, while at the same time encouraging and allowing the voices of others to be heard. She wholeheartedly carries the roles of a hardworking employee and student, a devoted daughter, sister, friend, and a seeker of happiness for herself and others. Deanna is an agent of change in the making and a great role model for social work students; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Minatrentai Dos Na Liheslulatoran Guahan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslulatoran Guahan and the people of Guam, commend and congratulate Ms. Deanna Komiyama on being named as the 2013 “Social Work Student of the Year” by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), Guam Chapter, and does further extend a warm and sincere Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu’s Ma’ase’ to Deanna for her hard work and dedication in assisting with the needs of the most vulnerable population in our island community; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Ms. Deanna Komiyama, to the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), Guam Chapter; and to the Honorable Edward J.R. Calvo, 1st Mayor of Guam.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATORAN GUÁHAN ON THE 15TH DAY OF MARCH 2013.

Resolution No. 62-32 (COR)

Introduced by: Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.

Relative to commending and congratulating Ms. Deanna Komiyama on being named as the 2013 “Social Work Student of the Year” by the National Association of Social Workers (NASW), Guam Chapter; and to further extending a warm and sincere Un Đàngkolo Na Si Yu’osMa’äse’to Deanna for her hard work and dedication in assisting with the needs of the most vulnerable population in our island community.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Ms. Deanna Marie Komiyama was born and raised in the village of Malojoj, and is the daughter of Velma Komiyama and the late William Komiyama Sr.; and

WHEREAS, Deanna received her Associate of Science degree in Marketing from the Guam Community College (GCC) in the spring of 2005. While at GCC, she was an active student and held the position of president of the marketing organization, Delta Epsilon Chi (DEX); and

WHEREAS, Deanna became Guam’s very first representative as an AmeriCorps*VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America) member, from 2007 to 2009, at the Center for Civic Engagement Office at GCC, where her focus was on service-learning; and
WHEREAS, Deanna is currently a part-time employee of Payless Shoesource at the Guam Premier Outlets, where she is able to practice her marketing and people skills; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Komiyama is an active member in her village community and volunteers whenever she can. She has been serving at the San Isidro Catholic Church as a Catechist for the past ten years, and as a Lector for even longer. She has experience with the church’s youth group, the San Isidro Angelic Harvesters (SIAH), working with youth ages 10 and up, focusing on ways to interact and engage youth to come back to the church through activities, fundraisers and community events; and

WHEREAS, currently, Deanna is a full-time student at the University of Guam (UOG), where she is a senior in the Bachelor of Social Work program, and expects to graduate in the spring. She has completed field placements at I Famaguon’ta and at Sanctuary, Incorporated, gaining and exhibiting good work ethics and professionalism in preparation for the field of social work; and

WHEREAS, Deanna has been an active member of the Social Work Student Alliance Organization at UOG over the past year, and she is currently the president of the organization. As the president of the organization, Deanna strives to carry on the practice of social justice and equality, starting with students first. She enjoys working together with the organization to let the community know about social work and its reputation of being a helping profession; and

WHEREAS, overall, Deanna has shown great passion, interest and willingness in helping others, and anyone who comes to know her can attest that this new found path to the social work profession greatly fits her; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Komiyama has been and continues to be an inspiration to others, especially for other students in the social work program, as she is a shining example of a great leader and motivator. She is known for her ability to lead others when under pressure and to be very supportive and encouraging when challenges are presented. She has proven herself to be a leader that is reliable, dependable and trustworthy; and

WHEREAS, as a student in the social work program, Deanna has made good-faith efforts and contributions for program events by participating and being involved more than needed, while expecting nothing but a good outcome for all in return; and

WHEREAS, the best reflection of Deanna’s skills lies in her remarkable ability to be the voice for others, while at the same time encouraging and allowing the voices of others to be heard. She wholeheartedly carries the roles of a hardworking employee and student, a devoted daughter, sister, friend, and a seeker of happiness for herself and others. Deanna is an agent of change in the making and a great role model for social work students; now therefore, be it
