Relative to commending Dr. Keith M. Horinouchi, DrPH, MPH, CNS, for his service and leadership as the outgoing Chairman of the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC), and to further extending a warm and sincere Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu’ros Ma’a`se to him for his hard work and dedication in improving the health of our island community.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF JIMA’TRENTAI DON NA LIHESLATUAN GUHAN:

WHEREAS, Dr. Keith M. Horinouchi, DrPH, MPH, CNS, is the outgoing Chairman of the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC). He was responsible for spearheading the steering committee that established the Coalition in December 2008, and he has served at the Coalition’s Chairman since then; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Horinouchi’s career in public health started in his commitment to education. In 1979, he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology at Loma Linda University, California. After graduation, he continued his education and acquired Master of Public Health (MPH) degrees in Nutrition and Health Education in 1982, and he then acquired his Doctor of Public Health (DrPH) in Preventive Care at Loma Linda University in California; and

WHEREAS, prior to his career in Guam, Dr. Horinouchi gained valuable experience and knowledge in the previous positions he served in his early career. He practiced in California as the Director of Health Promotion & Preventive Care Specialist at the Riverside-San Bernardino County Indian Health, Inc., from 1983 to 1986. He then moved to Hawaii in 1986 and served at Kaiser Administration at Waimanalo Hospital, Administration (CDG) at the Kauai Veterans Memorial Hospital, Assistant Hospital Administrator (CDG) at the Kona Community Hospital, and Preventive Care Specialist and Director at Waiakea Hawaii; and

WHEREAS, in 1996, Dr. Horinouchi became the Director of the Juvenile Diabetes (SDA) Wellness Center and served as a Clinical Preventive & Nutrition Specialist until 2011, where he strove lifestyle and nutritional medicine for the management and prevention of chronic lifestyle diseases and aging. At the same time in 2008, he served as the project co-director for the Guam National Project, whose Jiva SDA Church received a grant from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation for the control of childhood obesity until its completion in 2010. In 2012, Dr. Horinouchi opened his Wellness Clinic, which provides the community with lifestyle and nutritional mediator approaches to chronic diseases and lifestyle concerns, including diabetes, dietary problems, fatigue, homoemusins, hyperemusins, obesity, cancer, heart disease and cognitive/behavioral problems; and

WHEREAS, aside from his professional career, Dr. Horinouchi serves as an advocate for a better lifestyle and better health for the community. He is the Chairman of the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC) from 2008 to 2011. Under his leadership, the GDCC completed the Diabetes Asset Mapping for Guam, the Diabetes Collaborative Messages for Physical Activity, Nutrition, Foot Care, and Tobacco Prevention, the Diabetes Directory, and the Guam Diabetes Needs Assessment. In addition, Dr. Horinouchi contributed to the efforts of the first Guam Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance (BREFS) Annual Report for 2007 to 2010, as well as contributing to the development of the Non-Communicable Disease (NCD) Plan for Guam; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Horinouchi is a member of the NCD Consortium, Nutrition Action Group, to implement the NCD Plan to establish community gardens throughout the island to promote the consumption of fruits and vegetables. In 2010, he developed the “Health Curriculum for Health Coaches” for the Worksite Wellness Program under the Consumer Protection Prevention to Work (CPPW) of the American Recovery Reinvestment Act (ARRA) initiative; and trained 23 health coaches from 23 government agencies, who have successfully implemented the program. He also provided technical assistance, coordination and screening for health coaches and employees under the Worksite Wellness Program for government agencies, private partners, non-governmental organizations, and faith-based communities; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Horinouchi expanded his skills to maintain his contribution to the community. In 2010, he advocated in the drafting of legislation that mandated healthy foods to be sold in vending machines at all government of Guam buildings, which later became Public Law 31-441. He also contributed to the efforts of the Secretary of the Pacific (SPC) and World Health Organization (WHO) Food Security Workshop. Dr. Horinouchi also represented the Guam NCD Community and provided Guam success stories in the SPC WHO 2.1.12 meeting in Tonga in 2011, and at the Pacific Summit on Diabetes in Japan in 2008; and

WHEREAS, throughout the years, Dr. Horinouchi has been a significant contributor to the improved health of our island community. He generously provided countless hours of health education, screening, and consultation to prevent and control heart disease, cancer, stroke, diabetes, arthritis, and other chronic non-communicable diseases to our local clinics, and to the community; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Horinouchi’s service and his leadership of the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC) has been an important factor in the betterment of the health of the Guam people. Dr. Horinouchi serves as a role model in valuing life, and he encouraged everyone to maintain a healthy and longer life. His contributions as a champion for a healthier and diabetes-free Guam is truly commendable, and his works will remain useful in continuing to enhance the health of the people of our island community; and

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of Jima’Trentai Don Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of Liheslaturan Guahan and the people of Guahan, commend Dr. Keith M. Horinouchi, DrPH, MPH, CNS, for his leadership as the outgoing Chairman of the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC); and does further extend our warm Un Dangkolo Na Si Yu’ros Ma’a`se to him for his hard work and dedication in improving the health of our island community; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption herein, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Dr. Keith M. Horinouchi, DrPH, MPH, CNS, to the Guam Diabetes Control Coalition (GDCC); and to the Honorable Edmund J. Cabao, Jr., Maguia’le’ Guahan.

Duly and regularly adopted by the Committee on Rules of Jima’Trentai Don Na Liheslaturan Guahan on the 15th Day of March 2012.
