Relative to recognizing and honoring Mrs. Felicidad Almonte Castillo as she celebrates the 101st year of her life; and to further commending her as a “2013 Senior Citizens Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Felicidad Almonte Castillo, known to her family and friends as “Fely,” was born on October 12, 1912, in the small town of Mangaldan in the province of Pangasinan, Philippines. She is the eldest child of three children born to Aurelia Astacio and Bernadino Almonte; and
WHEREAS, in 1934, Fely married Mr. Espiritu P. “Pedro” Castillo, a fisherman in her village, where together they relied on the sea to support themselves and their family; and

WHEREAS, while her husband fished, Fely enjoyed helping to sell the fish in the village, and she was able to successfully sell their fish because of her friendly personality; and

WHEREAS, after many years of fishing in their home village, the fish market declined dramatically due to extensive dynamiting around the area. Fely and her husband were forced to buy and sell fish in the surrounding villages, and were still able to sustain their five children; and

WHEREAS, Mr. and Mrs. Castillo moved to Guam in 1987, and they lived with their son, Ricardo A. Castillo, in the village of Yigo; and

WHEREAS, Fely and her husband became active members of the senior citizens community of Guam and frequented the Yigo Senior Citizens Center, where they learned to dance, sing and exercise for fun; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Castillo would often share her stories with her family of her active life at the Yigo Senior Citizens Center and the many outings they enjoyed, such as luncheons at local hotels; and

WHEREAS, Fely was an avid attendee of the Senior Center until she experienced a fall that left her with a fractured hip. Fely spent some time at the Guam Memorial Hospital Skilled Nursing Unit, and then recuperated comfortably at home, where nurses and friends from the Senior Center came to visit her several times a week; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Castillo enjoyed eating mangos and bitter melon as her favorite fresh produce to keep her healthy, and she also enjoyed playing card games and bingo to keep her busy; and
WHEREAS, Fely and her husband were blessed with their greatest treasure, their family of 17 grandchildren and 19 great grandchildren. Fely was called to our Heavenly Father on February 9, 2013, after a long battle with cancer; now therefore, be it
