Relative to recognizing and commending Ms. Alegria A. Quitoriano, RN on the occasion of her retirement from the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services; and to further extending a warm and sincere Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’âse’ to her for her hard work and dedication in providing quality health care to our island community.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Ms. Alegria A. Quitoriano, RN is affectionately known as “Gigi,” and has been working with the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services since 1986; and
WHEREAS, Ms. Quitoriano attended the University of Santo Tomas in Manila, Philippines, where she took preparatory courses in Nursing. Later, she attended Arellano University in Manila, Philippines, where she acquired her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing; and

WHEREAS, from 1976 to 1981, Gigi worked as a Staff Nurse I at the University of Santo Tomas Hospital in the Labor and Delivery Department. At the same time, she was also a Nursing Clinical Instructor at the Perpetual Help College of Nursing in Manila, Philippines; and

WHEREAS, due to her outstanding work ethic, Gigi was promoted to Head Nurse in 1981, and she worked at the University of Santo Tomas Hospital until she moved to Guam; and

WHEREAS, Gigi then sought employment on the island, and in 1986, she was successfully employed at the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services, where she worked as a Nurse Aide at the Bureau of Family Health and Nursing Services at the Central Region Health Center; and

WHEREAS, soon thereafter, Gigi was promoted to a Licensed Practical Nurse I; and two years later, her outstanding work led to her promotion as a Licensed Practical Nurse II at the same department, and she then transferred to the Northern Region Health Center; and

WHEREAS, in 1990, Gigi became a Community Health Nurse I, and in the same year she was then promoted to Community Health Nurse II at the Department of Public Health and Social Services; and

WHEREAS, in 1997, Gigi was appointed to serve as a Clinical Associate at the University of Guam, College of Nursing; and up until her retirement, Gigi had served as the Clinic Nurse Manager at the Department of Public Health and Social Services; and
WHEREAS, throughout her years on Guam, Ms. Quitoriano provided her time and dedicated her service towards providing quality health care to the people of Guam. She received professional license certifications from the Guam Board of Nurse Examiners, to include Basic Life Support, Advance Cardiac Life Support, Intravenous Infusion, as well as Lamaze Instructor; and

WHEREAS, Gigi’s passion in the health care community brought numerous benefits to our island community. In fulfilling her duty as a registered nurse, she also acquired special trainings, courses, and attended conferences to enhance her skills and knowledge in order to become up to date with methods and materials to be provided to individuals; and

WHEREAS, among these include taking courses in Management in Health at the University of Guam, and attending the Pacific HIV/AIDS Clinical Conference in Hawai’i; as well as courses in Fundamentals of STD Intervention, and Psychosocial Counseling for the HIV Infected Person, to name a few; and

WHEREAS, Gigi’s hard work and commitment was greatly appreciated by the Department of Public Health and Social Services, where in 2003, she was given the award for “Supervisor of the Year” under the category of Nursing and Dental Hygiene; and

WHEREAS, Gigi’s services are truly appreciated by the island community. The nursing profession has a respectable reputation worldwide because their services extend from inquiries until the time of discharge. The responsibilities of nurses can be seen in various venues and institutions. Though their services vary, they continue to play an integral role in providing quality health care to the people of Guam; and

WHEREAS, the month of May is recognized as “Nurses Month,” and this year’s theme is: “Nurses: Delivering Quality & Innovation in Patient Care.” Gigi has done an exemplary job in the nursing profession, and throughout the years, she has delivered quality and innovative methods in patient care; and her services are truly commendable and appreciated by the people of Guam; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and commend Ms. Alegria A. Quitoriano, RN on the occasion of her retirement from the Guam Department of Public Health and Social Services; and does further extend a warm and sincere Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’åse’ to her for her hard work and dedication in providing quality health care to our island community; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted Ms. Alegria A. Quitoriano, RN; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’låhen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA‘TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 22ND DAY OF MAY, 2013.

JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D.
Speaker

TINA ROSE MUÑA BARNES
