Relative to commending and congratulating Mrs. Tan Lam Pak Kim on the renaming of the English and Communications Building of the University of Guam in honor of her hard work, dedication, and generosity to our community and education system.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF 1 MINATA' TENAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUHAN:

WHEREAS, born in Quanzhou, Fujian Province, China in 1931, Miss Lam Pak Kim met her eternal love, Dr. Tan Sin Lin, when they were part students in high school, and
WHEREAS, the 1940s was a difficult time for many countries in Asia, due to the conflict among many nations, but in spite of the troubled world around them, Lam Pak Kim and Dr. Tan became engaged before Dr. Tan left for the Philippines to earn a living like many other Chinese did in 1948; and
WHEREAS, although the couple were separated by many miles, it didn't weaken their bond, but instead made them grow closer, and they were married in Hong Kong in 1952; and
WHEREAS, Mrs. Tan was the right hand lady to Dr. Tan, allowing Dr. Tan to move forward in full force to develop businesses in Guam and the Micronesian region, and Dr. Tan was able to achieve such tremendous success because of the constant support from the woman behind the Lam Tan Group, Mrs. Tan Lam Pak Kim; and
WHEREAS, a fundamental component to the success of the Tan family is their belief in the value of education, their support for many educational projects that was recognized by the public school system in Saipan in 2006, and the contributions by the Tan Sin Lin Foundation in the building of the library at the Palus Community College in 2010; and,
WHEREAS, Mrs. Tan, alongside Dr. Tan, are perennial benefactors of the University of Guam, a most beloved institution of the family from which five of their children, Henry, Wilfrid, Lily, Raymond and Jerry, graduated; and
WHEREAS, the Tan Family established the University of Guam Library Endowment Fund in 2007, and they made a generous contribution on the occasion of the University's 50th Anniversary in 2012; and
WHEREAS, Mrs. Tan has participated in countless charitable and community support services with the Chinese community of Guam, and she has helped to build our community with her love and public; and
WHEREAS, Mrs. Tan Lam Pak Kim is truly a role model in our community, and the lady behind one of the most successful men on Guam; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of 1 Minata' Tenai Dos Na Lihesluran Gudahn does hereby, on behalf of 1 Lihesluran Gudahn and the people of Guam, commended and congratulated Mrs. Tan Lam Pak Kim on the renaming of the University of Guam's English and Communications Building in honor of her hard work, dedication, and generosity to our community and our island's education system, and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mrs. Tan Lam Pak Kim, and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, 1 Magagaw Gudahn.

Duly and Regularly Adopted by the Committee on Rules of 1 Minata' Tenai Dos Na Lihesluran Guahan on the 18th Day of September 2013.
