Whereas, on October 5, 1993, the Hyatt Regency Guam proudly opened its doors; and

Whereas, the hotel is situated on 150 meters of white sand beach along the clear, warm waters of Tumon Bay, with shopping centers like the Duty Free Galleries and the Tumon Sands Plaza within a short walking distance; and

Whereas, for the past twenty (20) years, the hotel has hosted a host of local important events, including: the Guam Visitors Bureau (GVB) tourism events, gubernatorial inauguration receptions; birthday celebrations; weddings; expos; and countless other special occasions; and

Whereas, the Hyatt Regency Guam has expanded and improved its facilities throughout the years, and in 2006, the hotel completed a multi-million dollar renovation of the hotel guest rooms and corridors; the lobby, the lounge, the salon, the fitness center, the Regency Club Lounge, and the dessert bar in the La Miranda Restaurant. From 2010 to 2012, the hotel continued to make improvements, completing a full-scale renovation of the Decks, the pool and resort facilities, and the tennis courts; adding a children's pool to the resort offerings; and

Whereas, the hotel has provided exemplary service to its valued guests, received the “Duty Free Award” from the Hyatt Regency Guam; and in 2009, the hotel received the award for the "Most Outstanding Tourist Attraction/Facility"; and in 2012, it received the "Gouden Lion-Hotelier" Award. The Hyatt Regency Guam has also earned various international awards and recognition, such as the "Top 20 Australia/Pacific Hotels" by Condé Nast Traveler in 2009, and

Whereas, in addition, the Hyatt Regency Guam is proud to be one of the largest employers on Guam. Led by General Manager, Jan Hendrik Madlenger, the hotel has been providing exceptional work experiences for its valued associates and training the leaders of tomorrow; and

Whereas, the hotel has a long-standing tradition of hosting exciting holiday events, including the "Christmas Tree Lighting" and the "Congressional House Opening"; and

Whereas, the hotel has had a long-standing partnership with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and local schools, including the St. John's School, which, through a Hyatt community grant, received money to further advance its efforts to promote environmental awareness on Guam; and therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Committee on Rules of the 11th Territorial Legislature does hereby, on behalf of the Legislative Chamber and the people of Guam, recognize, congratulate and commend the Hyatt Regency Guam on its Twenty (20) Year Anniversary celebration of providing exemplary hotel services and authentic hospitality on Guam; and does further extend a sincere "Ua Dungka Na Si Yu'k Mo' Afa" to the staff and management of the Hyatt for its invaluable support and contributions to our island community; and be it further

Resolved, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretaries attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be hereafter transmitted to Jan Hendrik Madlenger, General Manager, Hyatt Regency Guam, and to the Honorable Edward J. Calvo, Speaker of the Guam Legislature.
