1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I

2 MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:
WHEREAS, Mr. Juan “John” A. Aguon was born on March 21, 1948; and is from the serene village of Umatac. He is the eldest child of the 12 children of the late †Jose and †Maria Aguon; and

WHEREAS, John began his educational path attending Umatac Elementary School and Mt. Carmel Catholic School, and he graduated from the Guam Trade and Technical School in 1967. John always took his education seriously, and always to heart, making his parents and family proud of his accomplishments; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from high school, John would go on to explore the world, joining the United States Air Force in 1968. Taking full advantage of various training programs available to servicemen, John became an expert in sheet metal work. During his military career, he was deployed in the Vietnam War and Operation Desert Storm. John worked very hard and achieved the rank of Master Sergeant. A very charismatic individual, John treated the servicemen and women under his command with respect, empathy and camaraderie, often seeing fellow soldiers signing up under his leadership for field work or temporary duty assignments, and who regarded John as a father figure. John began a Holiday Pick-Up program for any service member who needed a ride to and from any destination due to inebriation or other cause; and

WHEREAS, John retired from military service with the United States Air Force in 1991; and

WHEREAS, during his very busy military career, John met and married his soulmate, Mrs. Josephine “Ofing” Muna Aguon of Agat. Not the typical military wife, Ofing took care of the children and everyday affairs throughout their military life; and

WHEREAS, John and Ofing are the proud parents of John Patrick and Joan. Their lives are a reflection of their father’s teachings and character, as they are hardworking individuals in their professions and personal lives; and
WHEREAS, after retiring from the Air Force, John moved his family back home to Guam, settling and residing in Adacao, Mangilao; and

WHEREAS, after enjoying his military retirement and reacquainting with his family and friends, John re-entered the workforce on February 14, 1992, and worked as an Electrician II with the Housing Management Division (HMD) of the Department of Administration (DOA). On December 13, 1997, John was promoted to the position of Building Maintenance Leader, with the responsibilities of overseeing the maintenance and upkeep of government housing under the jurisdiction of the Department of Administration. On July 29, 2002, in compliance with public law, the Housing Management Division staff were transferred from DOA to the Department of Public Works; and

WHEREAS, on March 24, 2003, John and other HMD staff were transferred back to DOA, where they were instrumental in the renovation and reconstruction of the former DOA offices in Hagåtña. One of the most noteworthy examples of the dedication to their job was in 2000 when Guam was hit with a series of typhoons, and the HMD was tasked to monitor and watch over the large generators set up for the DOA, ensuring that the 24-hour DOA operations were uninterrupted; and

WHEREAS, over the course of several years, John became trained in fixed assets and accounting, which eventually led to him being assigned to the Government of Guam Fixed Assets and Property Management Section at DOA. On April 7, 2008, John was promoted to the position of Accounting Technician Supervisor; and

WHEREAS, throughout his career with DOA, John assisted in the development and implementation of Fixed Asset and Property Management projects; and he was responsible for field visits and the tagging, collecting and recording of the government of Guam’s fixed assets and property, and assisting and accompanying independent auditors in locating questionable property and assets that were up for audit; and
WHEREAS, John’s service with the government of Guam was not limited to DOA, as he was appointed to serve on other extracurricular committees, serving in membership or leadership positions, to include: the typhoon aftermath clean-ups; the DOA Chamorro Week festivities; the Labor Day Committee; the Governor’s School Clean-up and Preparation Committee; the Relay for Life; and other projects. The DOA Management has relied heavily on John’s ability to coordinate and execute numerous plans that provided assistance to the people of Guam; and

WHEREAS, John has left a lasting legacy amongst his colleagues, friends and family that will continue as he proudly retires from a noteworthy career at the Department of Administration; and

WHEREAS, John has also dedicated much of his personal time and energies as an active and devout Catholic and parishioner of the Santa Teresita Catholic Church Parish in Mangilao, assisting the parish in the preparation of Mass, the organization of parish activities, cleaning, and overseeing various construction projects. Celebrating the Eucharist weekly at the 6:00 a.m. Sunday Mass, John participates as a Minister of Hospitality. Additionally, John takes pride in his village of Mangilao, often assisting the village Mayor whenever and wherever he is needed; and

WHEREAS, John’s years of upbringing with strong family values, principles and pride, together with his military training and experience, has made him both motivational and inspirational to those whose lives he has touched, and it has allowed him to selflessly dedicate many years of his life to serving his community on Guam and throughout the United States; now therefore, be it
