Taitano on his retirement from the Judiciary of Guam after more than 28 years of dedication and hard work; and to further expressing Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’åse to him for contributing his time and expertise to various community based organizations.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Mr. Perry C. Taitano has been a driving force behind the ongoing improvements made at the Judiciary of Guam for over 28 years. With the support of his wife, Lourdes Taitano, and their four children - Tia, Perry, Kawai and Adam, Mr.
Taitano has been able to transcend his commitment as a family man into his professional life that has allowed him to be successful in his career at the Judiciary of Guam; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano’s educational background can attest to his expertise as a professional for the Judiciary of Guam. He holds a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from California State University, Northridge, which he obtained in 1975. Seeing the need to further advance his knowledge, he graduated from the University of Guam on May 16, 1980, with a Master’s degree in Business Administration. He also became a Fellow of the Institute for Court Management in June of 1983, which is a prestigious organization known for contributing to the growing literature of court administration; and

WHEREAS, Perry’s tenacity to succeed in all that he partakes in availed him of the opportunity to serve as the Chief of Administration for the Judiciary of Guam, from October 2, 1980 to May 2, 1981. His progressive career led him to become the Deputy Administrative Director of the Court, where he served from May 3, 1981 to September 27, 1987. Mr. Taitano’s arduous work ethic and commitment led him to serve as an Administrative Director for the Superior Court of Guam, on September 28, 1987; and he successfully held this position until his retirement on September 30, 1994; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano’s retirement from the Judiciary led him to further apply his expertise, as he became the Director of Business Development, Governmental Affairs for Straub Development Corporation, based on Guam, where he worked from November 1994 to April 1997. He was responsible for initiating and overseeing the planning, design and development of the northern, central, and southern multispecialty clinics on Guam. He also worked closely with various government of Guam agencies to ensure that financial matters are maintained and carried out successfully to ensure a healthy business relationship; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano further expanded his career, and he became the Chief Operations Officer for the Doctor’s Clinic on Guam, serving from August 1998 to December 2003. He was responsible for service agreements and contracts to help render quality healthcare services for our island community; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano reignited his judicial career, and he was appointed by the Judicial Council of Guam to serve as Administrator of the Courts for the Judiciary on January 26, 2004. In this capacity, he was able to successfully oversee all personnel matters, as well as administrative duties for the court; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano was instrumental in supporting the strategic plans of Chief Justice F. Philip Carbullido that has improved court management and services for its employees and the people of Guam. With limited funding for the Judiciary, Mr.
Taitano and his colleagues were able to create a Budget Reduction Plan that helped cut costs where it could be spared. In addition to this plan, the court was able to avert the possibility of furloughs as the court was able to spend allotments provided by the government cautiously; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano’s abilities to serve as a leader is not limited to just his work. He has served as a volunteer member for the Community First Federal Credit Union’s predecessor, in the capacity of Supervisory Committee Chairman for a year; and subsequently served as Vice Chairman and Board Member for 14 years, with the added volunteer assignments of Committee Chairman for the Facilities, Strategic Planning and Technology Committee; and WHEREAS, Mr. Taitano is currently involved with spearheading a transition team for a special project at the Agaña Heights Baptist Church, where he also volunteers his time as a Treasurer; and

WHEREAS, his dedication to the Judiciary of Guam and as a contributing member of our community is commendable; now therefore, be it
