<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Resolution No.</th>
<th>Sponsor</th>
<th>Title</th>
<th>Date Intro</th>
<th>Date of Presentation</th>
<th>Date Referred</th>
<th>Committee / Ofc Referred</th>
<th>Date Adopted</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>350-32 (LS)</td>
<td>Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.</td>
<td>Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her one hundred first (101ST) year of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”</td>
<td>4/9/14 9:20 a.m.</td>
<td>5/6/14 9 a.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>04/09/14</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
May 1, 2014

MEMORANDUM

To: All Senators

From: Senator Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.

Subject: Presentation of Resolutions to Guam Senior Citizens Month Centenarians

Hafa Adai!

As celebrate and recognize our Senior Citizens during this month's festivities, please join me as I present Legislative Resolutions 350-32(LS) through 357-32(LS) to the following, congratulating them as recipients of the Senior Citizens Month Centenarian Award for 2014.

The resolutions will be presented to:
Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero
Mrs. Oliva Untalan Leon Guerrero Arroyo
Mrs. Irene Fernandez Laygo
Mrs. Regina M. Reyes
Mrs. Maura R. Robeniol
Mrs. Joaquina Mendiola Roberto
Mrs. +Carmen Navea Mina, awarded posthumously
Mrs. +Estelle Greenway Minot, awarded posthumously

The Presentation will take place on Tuesday, May 6, 2014 during the Senior Citizens Month Centenarian Celebration at the St. Dominic's Senior Care Home in Barrigada Heights beginning at 9am.

Together, let us recognize and congratulate our island Centenarians!

Si Yu'os Ma'ase'!

Joseph A. Q. Mesngon
Office of Senator Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.
I Mina'trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guahan
Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Cabo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizen’s Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY JINATRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAM:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Rita Cabo Artero was born on June 7, 1913, in the capital city of Hagåtña, to her proud parents, the late Gregorio Leon Guerrero Cabo and the late Maria Rosario Artero Cabo, and she is the second oldest child of six children. Her father worked hard to support Rita and the family through his business as the only shoemaker on Guam at the time; and

WHEREAS, Rita Cabo Artero was married to the late Jesus Coast Artero, who also lived on Hagåtña, on March 31, 1945, and they have four children: G. Pascual Cabo Artero, Edith Ilona Cabo Artero-Malace, Edward Cabo Artero, and E. Prisco Cabo Artero. Rita also accepted the responsibility and embraced her husband’s nine children from his previous marriage, and helped rear them as if they were her own; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a loving mother who has been the mainstay of her family, and also of her husband’s side of the family. Her compassion, support, and familial values extended not only to her immediate family, but also to her nephews and nieces whose parents had passed on. She took on the role of “The Elder” or “Mother Figure,” and she never hesitated to give herself of her time to serving her family and her community, more especially to serving the Lord. Her love and untiring dedication to serving the Lord sets her apart and

WHEREAS, Rita loved her island community and served the people through different organizations she was affiliated with. She also served the Catholic Church through different vocations, especially with the St. Joseph parish and St. Mauro Kamaiul. As a disciple of the Lord, she had immersed herself to serving the Church since she was thirteen years of age. She was a member of the St. Joseph Parish and the community of Yigo. She and her husband, Jesus C. Artero, were chosen as the parishioners of the Yigo Church prior to a priest being permanently assigned to that parish, and even after. With the help of her family and other parishioners, she was often in charge of cleaning the church and church grounds, and coordinating the placement of flowers, the daily Mass, the Bible, and the construction and setup for the Corpus Christi celebrations. Rita turned the church as if it was her home, and she continued to flourish in beauty with her power, but most importantly, with her heart to put the Lord first above all else; and

WHEREAS, many individuals were inspired through Rita, and for years, Rita had been the President of the Christian Mothers in the Parish of Yigo. She was also very supportive of the other officers of those organizations, and the Parish of Our Lady. She was also an active member of the Government of Guam Association of Retired Persons (GUGARP). During Guam Women’s Week celebrations, she lead the school children, telling them stories about the history of the ancient Chamònas, while dressed in their Chamores costumes. She wanted children to embrace and understand the history of our island’s culture. She also reached out to other members of the community, and traveled up to Andersen Air Force Base with a group of her friends to share in the Guam Women’s Week celebrations. Rita displayed and taught some traditional crafts, such as coconut weaving of different items, and

WHEREAS, Rita was a walking reflection of the Lord on the earth as she ministered to the poor, the sick, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the youth. Rita and her husband, Jesus, with the grace of our Lord, also converted a lot of people within their community and their families into Christianity as Catholics, and also became main sponsors. They were also strong supporters of the Catholic Church and

WHEREAS, Rita has touched the lives of many people from different walks of life; compassion, and gentleness. To all who had the privilege of knowing and experiencing the warmth of her presence, they felt that they have been touched by a servant of the Lord. Rita Cabo Artero not only has a maternal love for our Lord, but she also has a profound love for our Blessed Mother; and she still continues to love, serve, and celebrate the Eucharistic Huby; and

WHEREAS, the Lord has blessed Rita with a loving family, good health, and a long life. She consistently ran organic farms, which she grew in her own herb-garden, and still follows her daily habit of not missing anything after 6:00 p.m., except warm milk to sustain her if needed. Rita is blessed with a combined total of sixteen children (five biological children and nine step-children), a combined total of twenty-five grandchildren; and a combined total of sixty-five great grandchildren, none therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that JINATRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAM, do hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and commend Rita Cabo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and do further commend her as a “2014 Senior Citizen’s Month Centenarian,” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary, thereof, to the Speaker thereof, and that copies of this be therefore transmitted to Mrs. Rita Cabo Artero, and to the Honorable Edith B. Cabo, Speaker thereof.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY JINATRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAM ON THE 7TH DAY OF APRIL, 2014.

_______________________________
JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D.
Speaker

_______________________________
TINA JOSEPHINE BARNES
Legislative Secretary
Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero was born on June 7, 1913, in the capital city of Hagåtña, to her proud parents, the late Gregorio Leon Guerrero Calvo and the late Maria Rosario Acosta Calvo; and she is the second oldest child of six children. Her father worked hard to support Rita and the family through his business as the only shoemaker on Guam at the time; and
WHEREAS, Rita Calvo Artero was married to the late +Jesus Cruz Artero, who was also from Hagåtña, on March 22, 1945; and they have four children: G. Pascual Calvo Artero, Edelfrida Calvo Artero-Ada, Edward Calvo Artero, and R. Patrick Calvo Artero. Rita also accepted the responsibility and embraced her widowed husband’s nine children from his previous marriage, and helped raise them as if they were her own; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a loving mother who has been the matriarch of her family, and also of her husband’s side of the family. Her compassion, support, and familial values extended not only to her immediate family, but also to her nephews and nieces whose parents had passed on. She took on the role of “The Elder” or “Mother Figure,” and she never hesitated to give lovingly of herself in her dedication to serving her family and her community, most especially to serving the Lord. Her love and unselfish dedication to serving the Lord sets her apart; and

WHEREAS, Rita loved her island community and served the people through the different organizations she is affiliated with. She also served the Catholic Church through different ministries, especially with the Santa Lourdes parish and Santa Marian Kamalen. As a disciple of the Lord, she had immersed herself in serving the Church since she was thirteen years of age. She was a techa for the Santa Lourdes parish and the community of Yigo. She and her husband, Jesus C. Artero, were charged as the primary caretakers of the Yigo Church years before a priest was permanently assigned to that parish, and even after. With the help of her family and other parishioners, she was often in charge of cleaning the church and church vestments, and coordinating the arrangement of the flowers, the carosa of Santa Lourdes, the Belen, and the construction and setup for the Corpus Christi celebration. Rita treated the church as if it were her home, and she continued to flourish its beauty with her presence, but most importantly, with her desire to put the Lord first above all else; and
WHEREAS, many individuals were inspired through Rita; and for years, Rita had been the President of the Christian Mothers in the Parish of Yigo. She was also very supportive of the other officers of those organizations, and the Legion of Mary. She was also an active member of the Government of Guam Association of Retired Persons (GGARP). During Chamorro Week celebrations, she read to school children, telling them stories about the history of the ancient Chamorros, while dressed in her Chamorro mestiza. She wanted children to embrace and understand the essence of our island’s culture. She also reached out to other members of the community, and traveled up to Andersen Air Force Base with a group of her friends to share in the Chamorro Week celebrations. Rita displayed and taught some traditional crafts, such as coconut weaving of different assortments; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a walking reflection of the Lord on this earth as she ministered to the poor, the sick, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the youth. Rita and her husband, Jesus, with the grace of our Lord, also converted a lot of people within their community and their families into Christianity as Catholics, and also became main sponsors. They were also strong supporters of the Catholic Charities Appeal; and

WHEREAS, Rita has touched the lives of many people from different walks of life with love, compassion, and gentleness. To all who had the privilege of knowing and experiencing the warmth of her presence, they feel that they have been touched by a servant of the Lord. Rita Calvo Artero not only has a passionate love for our Lord, but she also has a profound love for our Blessed Mother; and she still continues to love, serve, and celebrate the Eucharist daily; and

WHEREAS, the Lord has blessed Rita with a loving family, good health, and a long life. She continuously eats organic foods, which she grows in her own herbal garden; and still follows her daily habits of not eating anything after 6:00 p.m., except warm milk to sustain her if needed. Rita is blessed with a combined total of thirteen children (four biological children and nine step-children); a combined total of twenty-five grandchildren; and a combined total of sixty-six great grandchildren; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guåhan, does
hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Rita Calvo
Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and does further commend her as a
“2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian;” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest
to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to
Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’lahen
Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.

JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D.
Speaker

TINA ROSE MUÑA BARNES
Legislative Secretary
Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero was born on June 7, 1913, in the capital city of Hagåtña, to her proud parents, the late Gregorio Leon Guerrero Calvo and the late Maria Rosario Acosta Calvo; and she is the second oldest child of six children. Her father worked hard to support Rita and the family through his business as the only shoemaker on Guam at the time; and
WHEREAS, Rita Calvo Artero was married to the late +Jesus Cruz Artero, who was also from Hagåtña, on March 22, 1945; and they have four children: G. Pascual Calvo Artero, Edelfrida Calvo Artero-Ada, Edward Calvo Artero, and R. Patrick Calvo Artero. Rita also accepted the responsibility and embraced her widowed husband’s nine children from his previous marriage, and helped raise them as if they were her own; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a loving mother who has been the matriarch of her family, and also of her husband’s side of the family. Her compassion, support, and familial values extended not only to her immediate family, but also to her nephews and nieces whose parents had passed on. She took on the role of “The Elder” or “Mother Figure,” and she never hesitated to give lovingly of herself in her dedication to serving her family and her community, most especially to serving the Lord. Her love and unselfish dedication to serving the Lord sets her apart; and

WHEREAS, Rita loved her island community and served the people through the different organizations she is affiliated with. She also served the Catholic Church through different ministries, especially with the Santa Lourdes parish and Santa Marian Kamalen. As a disciple of the Lord, she had immersed herself in serving the Church since she was thirteen years of age. She was a techá for the Santa Lourdes parish and the community of Yigo. She and her husband, Jesus C. Artero, were charged as the primary caretakers of the Yigo Church years before a priest was permanently assigned to that parish, and even after. She, sometimes with the help of her family and other parishioners, was in charge of cleaning the church and church vestments, and coordinating the arrangement of the flowers, the carosa of Santa Lourdes, the Belen, and the construction and setup for the Corpus Christi celebration. Rita treated the church as if it were her home, and she continued to flourish its beauty with her presence, but most importantly, with her desire to put the Lord first above all else; and
WHEREAS, many individuals were inspired through Rita; and for years, Rita had been the President of the Christian Mothers in the Parish of Yigo. She was also very supportive of the other officers of those organizations, and the Legion of Mary. She was also an active member of the Government of Guam, Association of Retired Persons (GGARP). During Chamorro Week celebrations, she read to school children, telling them stories about the history of the ancient Chamorros, while dressed in her Chamorro mestiza. She wanted children to embrace and understand the essence of our island’s culture. She also reached out to other members of the community, and traveled up to Andersen Air Force Base with a group of her friends to share in the Chamorro Week celebrations. Rita displayed and taught some traditional crafts, such as coconut weaving of different assortments; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a walking reflection of the Lord on this earth as she ministered to the poor, the sick, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the youth. Rita and her husband, Jesus, with the grace of our Lord, also converted a lot of people within their community and their families into Christianity as Catholics, and also became main sponsors. They were also strong supporters of the Catholic Charities Appeal; and

WHEREAS, Rita has touched the lives of many people from different walks of life with love, compassion, and gentleness. To all who had the privilege of knowing and experiencing the warmth of her presence, they feel that they have been touched by a servant of the Lord. Rita Calvo Artero not only has a passionate love for our Lord, but she also has a profound love for our Blessed Mother; and she still continues to love, serve, and celebrate the Eucharist daily; and

WHEREAS, the Lord has blessed Rita with a loving family, good health, and a long life. She continuously eats organic foods, which she grows in her own herbal garden; and still follows her daily habits of not eating anything after 6:00 p.m., except warm milk to sustain her if needed. Rita is blessed with a combined total of thirteen children (four biological children and nine step-children); a combined total of twenty-five grandchildren; and a combined total of sixty-six
great grandchildren; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guåhan, does
hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Rita Calvo
Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and does further commend her as a
“2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian;” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest
to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to
Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahen
Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA
LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.

JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D.  TINA ROSE MUÑA BARNES
Speaker                        Legislative Secretary
Resolution No. 350-32 (LS)

Introduced by: Dennis G. Rodriguez, Jr.
T. C. Ada
V. Anthony Ada
FRANK B. AGUON, JR.
B. J.F. Cruz
Chris M. Dueñas
Michael T. Limtiaco
Brant T. McCreadie
Tommy Morrison
T. R. Muña Barnes
Vicente (ben) C. Pangelinan
R. J. Respicio
Michael F. Q. San Nicolas
Aline A. Yamashita, Ph.D.
Judith T. Won Pat, Ed.D.

Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero was born on June 7, 1913, in the capital city of Hagåtña, to her proud parents, the late Gregorio Leon Guerrero Calvo and the late Maria Rosario Acosta Calvo, and she is the second oldest child of six children. Her father worked hard to support Rita and the family through his business as the only shoemaker on Guam at the time; and
WHEREAS, Rita Calvo Artero was married to the late Jesus Cruz Artero, who was also from Hagåtña, on March 22, 1945; and they have four children: G. Pascual Calvo Artero, Edelfrida Calvo Artero-Ada, Edward Calvo Artero, and R. Patrick Calvo Artero. Rita also accepted the responsibility and embraced her widowed husband’s nine children from his previous marriage, and helped raise them as if they were her own; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a loving mother who has been the matriarch of her family, and also of her husband’s side of the family. Her compassion, support, and familial values extended not only to her immediate family, but also to her nephews and nieces whose parents had passed on. She took on the role of “The Elder” or “Mother Figure,” and she never hesitated to give so lovingly of herself in her dedication to serving her family and her community, most especially to serving the Lord. Her love and unselfish dedication to serving the Lord sets her apart; and

WHEREAS, Rita loved her island community and served the people through the different organizations she is affiliated with. She also served the Catholic Church through different ministries, especially with the Santa Lourdes parish and Santa Marian Kamalen. As a disciple of the Lord, she had immersed herself in serving the Church since she was thirteen years of age. She was a techá for the Santa Lourdes parish and the community of Yigo. She and her husband, Jesus C. Artero, were charged as the primary caretakers of the Yigo Church years before a priest was permanently assigned to that parish, and even after. She, sometimes with the help of her family and other parishioners, was in charge of cleaning the church and church vestments, and coordinating the arrangement of the flowers, the garosa of Santa Lourdes, the Belen, and the construction and setup for the Corpus Christi celebration. Rita treated the church as if it were her home, and she continued to flourish its beauty with her presence, but most importantly, with her desire to put the Lord first above all else; and
WHEREAS, many individuals were inspired through Rita; and for years, Rita had been the President of the Christian Mothers in the Parish of Yigo. She was also very supportive of the other officers of those organizations, and the Legion of Mary. She was also an active member of the Government of Guam, Association of Retired Persons (GGARP). During Chamorro Week celebrations, she read to school children, telling them stories about the history of the ancient Chamorros, while dressed in her Chamorro mestiza. She wanted children to embrace and understand the essence of our island’s culture. She also reached out to other members of the community and traveled up to Andersen Air Force Base with a group of her friends to share in the Chamorro Week celebrations. Rita displayed and taught some traditional crafts, such as coconut weaving of different assortments; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a walking reflection of the Lord on this earth as she ministered to the poor, the sick, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the youth. Rita and her husband, Jesus, with the grace of our Lord, also converted a lot of people within their community and their families into Christianity as Catholics, and also became main sponsors. They were also strong supporters of the Catholic Charities Appeal; and

WHEREAS, Rita has touched the lives of many people from different walks of life with love, compassion, and gentleness. To all who had the privilege of knowing and experiencing the warmth of her presence, they feel that they have been touched by a servant of the Lord. Rita Calvo Artero not only has a passionate love for our Lord, but she also has a profound love for our Blessed Mother; and she still continues to love, serve, and celebrate the Eucharist daily; and

WHEREAS, the Lord has blessed Rita with a loving family, good health, and a long life. She continuously eats organic foods, which she grows in her own herbal garden; and still follows her daily habits of not eating anything after 6:00 p.m., except warm milk to sustain her if needed. Rita is blessed with a combined total of thirteen children (four biological children and nine step-children); a combined total of twenty-five grandchildren; and a combined total of sixty-six great grandchildren; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Lihesluran Guåhan, does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and does further commend her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian;” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.

______________________________  ______________________________
JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D.       TINA ROSE MUÑA BARNES
Speaker                        Legislative Secretary
Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her one hundred first (101st) year of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF

WHEREAS, Ms. Rita Calvo Artero was born on June 7, 1913, in the city of Hagatna, to her proud parents Gregorio Leon Guerrero Calvo and Maria Rosario Acosta. Rita is the 2nd oldest of 6 children. Her father worked hard to support Rita and the family through his business as the only shoemaker on Guam at the time; and

WHEREAS, Rita Calvo Artero was married to the late Jesús Cruz Artero from Hagatna on March 22, 1945. They have four children: G. Pascual Calvo Artero, Edelfrida Calvo Artero-Ada, Edward Calvo Artero, and R. Patrick Calvo Artero. Rita also accepted the responsibility and embraced her widowed husband’s nine children from his previous marriage, and helped raise them as if they were her own; and
WHEREAS, she was a loving mother, who has been the matriarch of her family and also to her husband’s side of the family. Her compassion, support, and familial values extended further than to not only her immediate family, but also to all her nephews and nieces as they lost their parents by death. She took the role of “The Elder” or “Mother Figure” and never hesitated to give so lovingly of herself to the dedication of serving her family and her community, most especially to serving the Lord. Her love and unselfish dedication to serving the Lord sets her apart; and

WHEREAS, Rita loved her island community and served the people through different organizations she is affiliated with. She also served the Catholic Church through different ministries, especially the Santa Lourdes parish and Santa Marian Kamalin. As a disciple of the Lord, she immersed herself in serving the church since she was thirteen years of age. She was a techa for the Santa Lourdes parish and the community of Yigo. She and her husband, Jesus C. Artero were charged as the primary caretakers of the Yigo Church, years before a priest was permanently assigned to that parish and even after. She, and sometimes with the help of her family and other parishioners was in charge of cleaning the church and church vestments and coordinating the arrangement of the flowers, the karaosa of Santa Lourdes, the belen and the construction and setups for the Corpus Christi celebration. Rita treated the church as if it were her home, and continued to flourish its beauty with her presence, but most importantly, with her desire to put the Lord first above all else; and

WHEREAS, many individuals were inspired through Rita, so for years, Rita has been the President of the Christian Mothers in the Parish of Yigo. She was also very supportive of other officers of those organizations and the Legion of Mary. She was also an active member of GGARP. During Chamorro week celebrations, she read to school children, telling them stories about the history of the ancient Chamorro as she dressed in the Chamorro mestiza. She wanted children to embrace and understand the essence of our island’s culture. She reached other members of the community when she went up to AAFB with a group of her friends to share the Chamorro week celebrations. Rita displayed and taught some traditional crafts such as coconut weaving of different assortments; and

WHEREAS, Rita was a walking reflection of the Lord on this earth as she ministered to the poor, the sick, the hungry, the imprisoned, and the youth. Rita and her husband, Jesus, with the grace of our Lord, also converted a lot of people within their community and their families into Christianity as Catholics, and also became main sponsors. They were also strong supporters of the Catholic Charities Appeal; and

WHEREAS, Rita has touched the lives of many people from different walks of life with love, compassion, and gentleness. To all who had the privilege of knowing and experiencing the warmth of her presence, they feel that they have been touched by a servant of the Lord. Rita Calvo Artero not only has a passionate love for our Lord, but she also has a profound love for our Blessed Mother, which she still continues to love, serve, and celebrate the Eucharist daily; and

WHEREAS, the Lord blessed Rita with a loving family, good health, and a long life. She continuously eats organic foods, which she grew in her own herbal garden and still follows her daily habits of not eating anything after 6:00 pm, except warm milk to sustain her if needed. Rita is blessed with a combined total of 13 children (4 biological and 9 step-children), a combined total of 25 grandchildren and a combined total of 66 great grandchildren; and now, therefore be it

RESOLVED, the Committee on Rules of I Mina’Trentai Dos Na I Lihesluran Guåhan, does hereby, on behalf of I Lihesluran Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Rita Calvo Artero as she celebrates her one hundred and one (101) years of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian;” and be it further RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Secretary of the Legislature attest to the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Rita Calvo Artero; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA’TRENTAI UNU NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE _____ DAY OF APRIL, 2014.

______________________________  ______________________________
JUDITH T. WON PAT, Ed.D     RORY RESPICIO
Speaker        Chairman, Committee on Rules

______________________________
TINA ROSE MUÑA BARNES
Legislative Secretary