Relative to recognizing and congratulating Mrs. Joaquina Mendiola Roberto as she celebrates her 101 years of life; and to further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.

BE IT RESOLVED by I MINA ’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, Joaquina Mendiola Roberto (Gábit) was born on September 9, 1913, and her loving parents are Gabriel Santos Mendiola and Maria Benaventura Leon Guenter. She is the eldest child of four children, and she took care of her siblings when her father went to work to support the family. He was a farmer and fisherman, who blessed his family with a beautiful home by the beach; however, their land was taken away by the government after World War II, and

WHEREAS, Joaquina married Juan G. Roberto on December 21, 1951, and together they raised seven children. Joaquina and Juan celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary on December 21, 2013; and

WHEREAS, Joaquina received her Bachelor’s degree in education and she became a teacher. Her love for teaching was extended through an opportunity for her to improve the education of our island students when she became a Principal and served for 24 years at the Talofofo Elementary School and Aga Elementary School. She spent a total of 42 years with the Guam Department of Education, preparing our young generation for success in adulthood. She also served our elders in the community, as she taught Adult Basic Education at the Talofofo Elementary School from the 1960s to the 1970s, helping senior citizens to receive their high school diplomas; and

WHEREAS, Joaquina continued to play a big role in our island’s development when she served as a member of the Guan Congress from 1946 to 1950; and

WHEREAS, as a disciple of Christ, Joaquina was also a very religious woman and she served as the President of the Christian Mothers, as well as being a member of the church choir. She took every opportunity she could to serve our island, but most importantly, to serve the Lord in all aspects of her life; and

WHEREAS, Joaquina was also a very passionate woman. Her hobbies included teaching, participating in church activities, and helping children. She highly valued education that when she adopted children outside of her family, she made sure that they were enrolled in school. She touched the lives of many students through her determination in making every child feel special and worthy of receiving the best education they can get; and

WHEREAS, as a woman filled with love and compassion, Joaquina shared these values within herself, for she was also very health conscious. She ate the right kinds of food, especially vegetables, and she only eats fish on Fridays; although she never really did any form of exercise; and

WHEREAS, Joaquina hails from the village of Talofofo, and she has seven children, twenty-one grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, and five great-great-grandchildren; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Min'a Tretai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Mrs. Joaquina Mendiola Roberto as she celebrates 101 years of life; and does further commend her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian”, and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mrs. Joaquina Mendiola Roberto; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Makarag Gutas

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA ’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUÁHAN ON THE 9TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.
