Relative to recognizing and congratulating Regina M. Reyes as she celebrates her one hundredth (100th) year of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian.”

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUHAHAN:

WHEREAS, Regina M. Reyes, fondly known as Tan Rina was born on Guam on November 23, 1914. Her proud parents were Dolores Cruz Delron and Felix Mambusan; and

WHEREAS, Tan Rina fell in love and was married to the late Henry Mendola Reyes. They were blessed with six children: Robert, Anthony, George, Don, Raymond, and Tille. Tan Rina is and has been a loyal resident of the village of Agana Heights for the past 80 years; and

WHEREAS, Tan Rina is one of Guam’s war survivors who had the opportunity to share her story on the KU Guam in 2011 about her days during World War II. While her past included happy memories of family and friends, she is still haunted by horrible memories of the war. A Japanese soldier sexually assaulted her when she was 5 months pregnant with her 5th child. She also endured the pain of looking into her husband’s eyes for the last time at the Maningerprint concentration camp before he was sent out to carry supplies to Yigo for the occupying forces. At the end of the war, Tan Rina was left with four children and a baby on the way without the income and support her husband had provided her prior to his brutal death. All the hardships that Tan Rina experienced taught her to be a courageous, independent woman; she was resilient and resourceful. She worked tirelessly to care and support her children. Every day for years, Tan Rina would make and sell corn tortillas to ensure her children were safe from poverty. However, despite all she endured she still expressed her sincere gratitude to the Lord, “Thanks to God, I’m still okay. It’s so painful” and

WHEREAS, in 2011, during the 67th Guam Liberation Parade, Guam’s World War II survivors were honored and only 19 were chosen as Grand Marshals to represent their respective villages. After everything that she had been through, Tan Rina stood proudly as she was chosen to represent her village of Agana Heights during the parade; and

WHEREAS, not only did she inspire individuals from the parade, but also in the village of Inarajan. On May 2013, Tan Rina joined other war survivors as they shared their memories of their past life on our island. Tan Rina shared her story with a young audience who were gathered to learn about their culture and their island’s history. From their attentiveness and positive responses, the young audience enjoyed listening to the stories Tan Rina shared of her life before they were born; and

WHEREAS, in her younger years, Tan Rina enjoyed sewing shirts and dresses for her family and friends. Her neighbors relied on her knowledge as a seamstress to alter, mend, and sew for them. Today her form of relaxation is playing cards over the weekend with the women in the village as well as other friends and family around the island; and

WHEREAS, Tan Rina is blessed with 6 children, 8 grandchildren, 21 great grandchildren, and 12 great-great grandchildren; and therefore be it

RESOLVED, I Min’a Ten’taí Da’ Na I Lihesluran Gahahan, does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and congratulate Regina M. Reyes as she celebrates her one hundred (100) years of life and further commending her as a “2014 Senior Citizens’ Month Centenarian” and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Secretary of the Legislature attest to the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Regina M. Reyes; and to the Honorable Edward J. B. Calvo, I Min’a Ten’taí Gahahan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLURAN GUHAHAN ON THE 7TH DAY OF APRIL 2014.
