Relative to commending and congratulating Robert J. Steffy, CPA, on being the first ever executive not from Australia or New Zealand to be elected as President of the Baseball Confederation of Oceania; and to further extending a warm "Migai Na Si Yu'os Ma'åse' to him for his dedication and service to the sports community and the people of Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÁHAN:

WHEREAS, by profession, Robert J. Steffy is currently a self-employed tax certified public accountant who graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from St. Mary’s College of California, in Moraga, California; and WHEREAS, Robert J. Steffy, CPA’s involvement in the sports community of Guam spans over forty years, including serving in his position as the President of the Guam Amateur Softball Association, from 1981 to the present; and also serving as the President of the Guam Major League, Inc., from 2008 to the present; and

WHEREAS, in 1992, Robert served as a member of the sports committee for the Yona Municipal Council; and presently, he serves as the President of the Guam Fast-Pitch Softball Association; and

WHEREAS, from 1997 to the present, Robert J. Steffy, CPA, has held the position of Treasurer for the Guam National Olympic Committee; and he is a member of the South Pacific Games Council and the Micronesian Games Council; and

WHEREAS, in 1999, Robert J. Steffy, CPA, was involved with the South Pacific Games Commission; in 2000, he was the Minister of Sport for Guam at the Olympic Games held in Sydney, Australia; and from 2000 to the present time, he has served as the Secretary General of the Guam National Olympic Committee; and

WHEREAS, from 2001 to the present, Robert J. Steffy, CPA, has been a Council Member of the Oceania National Olympic Committee; and

WHEREAS, from 2005 to 2009, Robert J. Steffy, CPA, served as the first President of the Oceania “Softball” Confederation, a twenty-two member country organization; and

WHEREAS, from 2009 to the present, Robert has been the Vice President of the International Softball Federation (ISF); and he is the only Guamanian to be elected to the ISF Hall of Fame, which took place in Caracas, Venezuela, in 1999; and

WHEREAS, in an election held on December 7, 2013, in Guam, Robert J. Steffy, CPA, was voted to serve as the President for the Baseball Confederation of Oceania (BCO), and whose primary responsibilities include organizing, encouraging, coordinating, assisting with, and promoting the development of baseball to its fullest potential in Oceania; and

WHEREAS, the Baseball Confederation of Oceania (BCO) is a fourteen member organization, comprised of Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Palau, the Federated States of Micronesia, the Marshall Islands, American Samoa, Samoa, Fiji, Papua New Guinea, New Caledonia, the Solomon Islands, the Cook Islands, Australia, and New Zealand; and

WHEREAS, while the goal of the BCO is to continue to promote and develop the sport of baseball in the region, it will also diligently support Japan in its quest to get baseball and softball back onto the list of sports played when it hosts the Olympics again in 2020; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'Trentai Dos Na Lihsلاتaran Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, commend and congratulate Robert J. Steffy, CPA, on being the first ever executive not from Australia or New Zealand to be elected as President of the Baseball Confederation of Oceania; and does further extend a warm Migai Na Si Yu'os Ma'åse' to him for his dedication and service to the sports community and the people of Guam; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Robert J.
Steffy, CPA, President of the Baseball Confederation of Oceania; to P. Ricardo “Rick” Blas, President of the Guam National Olympic Committee; to Ricardo Fraccari, President of the International Baseball Federation; to Dale McMann, President of the International Softball Federation; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahen Guåhan.
