Relative to recognizing and commending Mrs. Carina Fejerang, owner of Salon Paradis, on celebrating over ten (10) years of doing outstanding business on Guam; and to further extending Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’âse’ to her for sharing her success with the people of Guam through the numerous charitable efforts and invaluable contributions she has provided.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA’TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Salon Paradis is a renowned business on Guam that first began as a business concept by Carina Fejerang, who had received the Grand Prize at the first Shell Live Wire Business Plan Competition in 2002; and after careful planning, the Salon Paradis was established in July 2004. Mrs. Fejerang’s success is rooted in the support of her family, as her husband Jerome, and their daughter, Paradis Jolie Fejerang, continue to stand beside her as she works to ensure that her business thrives through Guam’s changing times; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Fejerang’s journey to success began with her educational pursuits. In 1996, she received a Cosmetology Degree from Clover Park Technical College, in Washington State; and she then received a certification in Aromatherapy.
In the same year, she became a Sebastian Advocate; and she then was later offered an opportunity to become a Sebastian Educator for Salon Services Incorporated in 1998.
In 2001, the Fejerang family moved to Guam and Mrs. Fejerang made her mark in the industry as an award winning Cosmetologist at Creative Hair Design, Progressive Design, Men's Hair Sculpture, Women's Hair Sculpture, and Evening Make Up.
Throughout the years, she has trained and educated many Cosmetologists in Washington State and on Guam. She has earned the title of: Master of Creative Hair Design. Today, she devotes her love of the industry to her Salon Paradis Team by providing education, mentorship, and guidance; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Fejerang is known for opening the island’s first Day Spa, as Salon Paradis offers exceptional services to the people of Guam by providing innovative packages and full on services; and it continues to revolutionize the beauty industry on Guam by transcending cosmetology into a professional work of art; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Fejerang continues to be a role model for the women of Guam. She is a mentor to those who know her, and is an advocate for all women who aspire to be business owners. She has shared her success with others through her involvement with numerous civic and charitable efforts, and her invaluable contributions; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, Carina began the reformation of one of the island’s first civic organizations, known as the Guam Women’s First Club (GWC). She assisted in researching and analyzing twenty (20) years of the GWC’s treasury accounts, which included a comparative analysis of the organization’s expenditures, scholarship payments, and donations. She reformed GWC’s accounting practices and received the first GWC “President’s Award” for her outstanding work, and her service as a Treasurer; and

WHEREAS, Carina’s civic involvement includes the planning and chairing of various events for non-profit organizations; as well as creating new events such as: the Women of Movement (honoring the movers and shakers of our island); the U’zeum’s Fairy Tale Ball (the first islandwide children’s ball); the Unconditional Love’s Walk your Dog 5K event (the first fun run for dogs and families); and she also coordinated the first ISLAND WALK OUT and STAND AGAINST VIOLENCE; and

WHEREAS, Carina continues to offer her guidance and expertise to several organizations so that they may successfully establish their non-profit organizations by assisting them through non-profit filing, strategic planning, and organization structure development. Currently, she advocates against violence and for the rights of victims through a movement called, Random Women’s Rally “RaWR!”; and she has taken the lead in re-establishing the Guam Family Justice Center (One Stop Victims Center); and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Fejerang’s notable business speaks to her ability to be part of numerous civic efforts. In the business community, she is known and respected as a role model for the women of Guam; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'Trentai Dos Na Lihesluran Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and commend Mrs. Carina Fejerang, owner of Salon Paradis, on celebrating ten (10) years of doing outstanding business on Guam; and does further extend Un Dàngkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’âse’ to her for sharing her success with the people of Guam through the numerous charitable efforts and invaluable contributions she has provided so that our island community can continue to benefit from her selfless contributions that has helped to improve the quality of life for all Guamanians; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mrs.
Carina Fejerang; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga’lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 22ND DAY OF AUGUST 2014.
