Relative to recognizing and commending Captain Philip E. Old for his exceptional support services to the people of Guam as the Director of the Joint Guam Program Office Forward; and to further extending Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’ase’ to him for his willingness to continue partnering with the people of Guam by facilitating, managing and putting forth the efforts associated with the relocation of the U.S. Marine Corps from Okinawa to Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Captain Philip E. Old has lived a life of service as a civilian and as an Officer of the U.S. Navy for decades. He has served in the U.S. Navy Reserve since August 2009, before he was recalled to permanent active duty. In his civilian career, he was an attorney engaging in private practice, and concentrated on complex civil litigation matters in Chicago, Illinois, where he lived with his wife Sherri; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old’s impressionable career in the U.S. Navy consists of numerous assignments, commands, and deployments prior to his present assignment at the Joint Guam Program Office Forward. He had served as the Assistant Chief of Staff for Theater Security Cooperation and Engagement for the Commander, U.S.
Seventh Fleet, which was forward deployed to Yokosuka, Japan. He was responsible for the planning and coordination of all foreign engagement activities with allied and partner navies in the Western Pacific Region, including over one hundred twenty (120) combined exercises, and the annual PACIFIC PARTNERSHIP mission; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old has successfully been the Commanding Officer for several U.S. Navy commands throughout our nation while he was on reserve and active duty. While serving onboard the USS ANCHORAGE, he qualified as a Surface Warfare Officer and deployed twice to the Western Pacific; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old understands the importance of establishing and building on partnerships. As the Director of the Joint Guam Program Office Forward, he has gone above and beyond to keep the leaders and people of Guam informed about the impending military buildup on Guam; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old has successfully upheld the mission of the Joint Guam Program Office Forward by facilitating, managing and putting forth the efforts associated with the relocation of the U.S. Marine Corps from Okinawa to Guam. He has built strong partnerships with several of the island’s leaders and stakeholders by engaging in discussions and plans that ensure that the government of Guam and the Department of Defense both equally benefit from the military buildup; and

WHEREAS, during all the public meetings for the DSEIS, as well as the discussions held by Guam’s stakeholders, Captain Old and his colleagues were always in attendance, providing exceptional support and services to the people of Guam, and listening to everyone’s concerns attentively. Captain Old was always willing to provide informational feedback to the concerns of our island community, and also communicated the importance of the submission of comments for the DSEIS, as it will be considered upon the release of the final Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement (SEIS), which is the final step in the SEIS process needed for the Record of Decision expected to be released in 2015; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old has left an everlasting impression on the people of Guam and will be considered not only as a military partner, but as a friend to many of the island’s leaders and stakeholders who have benefitted from his leadership and positive efforts for the Department of the Navy and the people of Guam. As he moves forward from his current role as the Director for the Joint Guam Program Office Forward, to other endeavors that the Department of Navy has in store for him the people of Guam wish him the very best; and

WHEREAS, Captain Old will also be further recognized by the President of the United States with the Legion of Merit for his exceptional and meritorious conduct in the performance of his outstanding service as the Director for the Joint Guam Program Office Forward from October 2012 to August 2014. He has successfully met the goals set forth in the Defense Policy Review Initiative in the relocation of the Marines to Guam. Through his engagement with the Governor of Guam and the Guam Legislature, he has provided invaluable advice and insight to keep the 8.6 Billion Dollars program on schedule; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Liheisluran Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, recognize and commend Captain Philip E. Old for his exceptional support services to the people of Guam as the Director of the Joint Guam Program Office Forward; and does further extend Un Dăngkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’ase’ to him for his willingness to partner with our island community during the release of the 2014 Draft Environmental Impact Statement process; and be it further RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Captain Philip E. Old; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 22ND DAY OF AUGUST 2014.

JUDITH T. WONPAT, Ed. D
Speaker
