Relative to recognizing and congratulating Paul J. Terlaje on the occasion of his retirement as the Administrator of the Taxpayer Service Division of the Department of Revenue and Taxation after thirty-eight (38) years of hard work and dedication to the government of Guam; and to further extending Un Dångkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'ai'ase' to him for his superior and exemplary service to the people of Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

1 MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, Paul J. Terlaje was born on December 16, 1955 in London, England; and he is the son of Agapito T. Terlaje and Cynthia T. Terlaje; and

WHEREAS, Paul J. Terlaje is married to Patricia McDonald Terlaje; and they are blessed with eight (8) children: Katrina, Kebrina, Karina, Pedro, Allen, Kristian, Kassandra, and Trinity; and ten (10) grandchildren: Sierra, Nicolas, Zion, Josiah, Noah, Eliya, Charlene, Aria, Kelsey, and Timothy III; and

WHEREAS, Paul J. Terlaje had attended the DODEA Elementary and Junior High School; Agat Jr. High School; John F. Kennedy High School; the University of Guam, where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Business Administration; and the Lincoln Graduate Center in Houston, Texas, where he successfully completed courses in July 1991 for the National Association of Master Appraisers (NAMA) and the Master Residential Appraiser (MRA) Designation; and

WHEREAS, from 1982 to 2003, during his tenure with the government of Guam, Paul J. Terlaje served in the United States Air Force Reserve with the 44th Aerial Port Squadron, and honorably retired at the rank of Technical Sergeant (TSGT/E6); and

WHEREAS, on October 28, 1980, Paul J. Terlaje began his career with the Department of Revenue and Taxation, serving as a Business Privilege Tax Specialist under the Taxpayer Service Division; and shortly after, on January 30, 1981, he served as an Administrative Aide in the Taxpayer Assistance and Processing Branch; and

WHEREAS, in March of 1984, Paul J. Terlaje was detailed to work as a Revenue Officer III with the Collection Branch under the Tax Enforcement Division. During this period, he also served as the Property Assets Inventory Manager for the Department of Revenue and Taxation; and

WHEREAS, in January of 1985, Paul J. Terlaje was promoted to the position of Tax Auditor II of the Examination Branch, under the Tax Enforcement Division. During this time, he served as the Equal Employment Opportunity Officer (EEO) for the Department; and he was also elected to serve as the President of the Revenue and Taxation Employees Association (RATEA); and

WHEREAS, in September of 1988, Paul J. Terlaje was detailed and subsequently promoted to serve as the Supervisor of the Real Property Tax Assessment Branch, Real Property Tax Division. He was officially classified in this position on October 23, 1989; and

WHEREAS, on October 1, 1990, Paul J. Terlaje was promoted to the position of Administrator of the Real Property Tax Division; and he was then officially classified in this position on February 24, 1992. While working there, he coordinated the Triennial Reappraisal of all taxable properties on Guam. He worked with former Speaker Antonio R. Unpingco to craft legislation that amended the Homeowners Exemption, and added the Senior Citizens Exemption and Citizens with Disabilities Exemption, to provide relief for those property owners whose property taxes increased as a result of the reappraisal. Once again, Paul J. Terlaje served as the Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Officer from 1991 to 2001; and

WHEREAS, on January 27, 2001, Paul J. Terlaje was promoted to the position of Administrator of the Taxpayer Service Division; and during this time he served as a member of the Special Accounting Service (SAS) to assist in the annual budget process; he served as a member of the All Island Tax Administrators Association (AITAA); he helped to develop and implement the quarterly reimbursement program for the Additional Child Tax Credit (ACTC) to ensure that the government of Guam is reimbursed by the U.S. Treasury; he worked with the U.S. Treasury, the Internal Revenue Service, the Department of Interior, the Office of Insular Affairs, and the Bureau of Budget & Management Research to calculate the projected annual Section 3
30 funds for Guam; and he helped to reconcile and recover Section 30 funds for Guam that were not previously covered over; and

WHEREAS, throughout his career with the Department of Revenue and Taxation, Paul J. Terlaje received numerous professional trainings and was awarded with a Certificate of Completion for Income Tax Laws and Regulations relative to Individuals-Revenue Agent Unit I (IRS Western Region, Guam) from January 5 to February 13, 1981; for Income Tax Laws and Regulations relative to Corporations-Revenue Agent Unit II (IRS Western Region, Guam) from October 1 to November 12, 1984; for Income Tax Laws and Regulations relative to Sub-Chapter S Corporations and Partnerships-Revenue Agent Unit III (IRS Western Region, Guam) from August 5 to August 25, 1985; and

WHEREAS, on September 19, 2014, Paul J. Terlaje retired as the Administrator of the Taxpayer Service Division; and his plans after retirement are to focus his efforts on home improvements and small business real estate projects. His institutional knowledge will be greatly missed by his colleagues at the Department of Revenue and Taxation; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina'Trentai Dos Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize and commend Paul J. Terlaje on the occasion of his retirement from the Department of Revenue and Taxation; and does further extend Un Dângkolo Na Si Yu'os Ma'äse' to him for his thirty-eight (38) years of dedicated and exceptional service to the people of Guam; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Paul J. Terlaje; to John Camacho, Director, Department of Revenue and Taxation; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 17TH DAY OF OCTOBER 2014.
