Relative to recognizing and commending TakeCare Insurance Company, Inc., for sponsoring this year’s 2014 “Cancer Case Management, Hospice, and Palliative Care Conference”; and to further extending a warm and sincere Un Dângkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’åse’ to TakeCare for its continuous efforts in providing quality health care to the people of Guam and throughout the region.

1 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÂHAN:
2 WHEREAS, cancer remains as the second leading cause of death in the United States. According to the American Cancer Society, cancer accounts for nearly one (1) out of four (4) deaths in America. The costs associated with direct cancer care treatments and indirect related costs are staggering. In 2009, the National Institute of Health reported that a total of 216 Billion Dollars was spent on direct and indirect related costs. Approximately 86 Billion Dollars was spent on direct medical care and 130 Billion Dollars was spent on indirect mortality costs related to the loss of productivity and premature death; and

WHEREAS, cancer case management is one of the many strategies used to optimize cancer care. Through case management, cancer treatment is optimized resulting in efficient and cost-effective resource management that promotes quality outcomes. Cancer case management covers the full spectrum of cancer care from diagnosis to treatment, and offers a supportive role during palliative and end-of-life care; and

WHEREAS, in celebration of National Palliative Month, this year’s 2014 “Cancer Case Management, Hospice, and Palliative Care Conference” is sponsored by TakeCare and will be focused on the following: understanding the role of cancer case management in the care of patients during active treatment, palliative and end-of-life care; discussing the impact of cancer case management on overall health care costs and patient outcomes; discussing the multidisciplinary role of behavioral and allied health services in the care of patients with cancer; and understanding the concept of pain and pain management as it relates to patients with cancer; and

WHEREAS, TakeCare is a private consumer health organization offering a wide range of health plans designed to meet the standards of every individual. For over forty (40) years, more than thirty-two thousand (32,000) members and patients have trusted its brand of reliable and consistent operational excellence. TakeCare is proud of its patient-centric medical and dental healthcare coverage, and proud of its three hundred fifty (350) local employees that contribute to the company’s growth as one of Micronesia’s largest health plan and healthcare services companies that aims to provide comfort, security and peace of mind; and

WHEREAS, TakeCare delivers exact and accurate results that is a consistent convenience to its members. As an organization, it strives to be at the forefront of the healthcare industry in upholding high standards of quality, comprehensive care, compassion for all, and a wide range of options that put health care firmly in the hands of individuals and families; and

WHEREAS, the FHP Medical Centers on Guam and Saipan, which are critical components of TakeCare’s healthcare services, encompass Urgent Care, OB/GYN, Pediatrics, Adult Medicine, Radiology, Home Health, Orthopedics, a Pharmacy, the Dental Center, and the Vision Center, as well as a Cancer Center. Offering U.S.-standard medical care and facilities on Guam and Saipan, the FHP Medical Centers have been staples of the health care industry to many local residents; and

WHEREAS, with the sponsoring of this Conference, TakeCare gives the people of Guam an opportunity to renew their commitment to the professional growth and success of clinical knowledge in advancing health care for patients who suffer from cancer; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina’Trentai Dos Na Lihesluran Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of I Lihesluran Guåhan and the people of Guam, recognize and commend TakeCare Insurance Company, Inc., for sponsoring this year’s 2014 “Cancer Case Management, Hospice, and Palliative Care Conference”; and does further extend a warm and sincere Un Dàngkolo Na Si Yu’os Ma’åse’ to TakeCare for its continuous efforts in providing quality health care to the people of Guam and throughout the region; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to TakeCare Insurance Company, Inc.; and to the Honorable Edward J.B. Calvo, I Maga'lahen Guåhan.

DULY AND REGULARLY ADOPTED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI DOS NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN ON THE 6TH DAY OF NOVEMBER 2014.
