BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI SINGKO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

She is the daughter of Florence and Poltosa Lehman, and is the fifth (5th) child of seven (7) children, with four (4) sisters and two (2) brothers. Her father was a carpenter and cabinet maker, and she has fond memories of playing in the fields of wildflowers near the beautiful little lake by her oceanside town. She still talks about those memories and recalls how wonderful her childhood was; and

WHEREAS, the Great Depression hit when Shirley was only twelve (12) years old, and when this historical event happened in the United States, those were very hard times for the family as they had lost everything. In 1936, she married Vernon Bridler and they raised two (2) children: Philip Bridler and Florence Dione Young; and she has also been blessed with nine (9) grandchildren and fifteen (15) great grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Shirley's first job was working for Carmel Dairy for a dollar a day. Shortly after, she began her career with the U.S. Postal Service accepting a position at the Naval Flight School Post Office. Later, she took on a position at the Monterey Post Office, where she worked for thirty (30) years until she retired; and

WHEREAS, from a very young age, Shirley was artistic, and in the late 1950s she got a chance to take lessons in fine art from Pat and John Cunningham at the Carmel Art Institute; and under the instruction of John and Pat, she learned color and composition. She says she has benefited from her training in all phases of her life; and she eventually earned her degree in Fine Arts and created artwork that was sold at the galleries in Carmel and on the wharf in Monterey. In the 1960s, she expanded on her creativity and started stringing beads for making necklaces and designing jewelry. Shirley was also involved with the Business Women's Club of America, and she really enjoys writing; and

WHEREAS, in 1982 after her retirement, Shirley and her husband moved to Camp Verti, Arizona; and they built their house near the Verti River. She got a chance to travel to Europe to see the paintings of the Masters; and she was able to meet her daughter Dione who sailed her family throughout the South Pacific and visited them in Hawaii, Fiji, New Zealand, and Guam. Shirley had made two (2) trips to Guam before deciding to make a home with her daughter on Guam. They left Camp Verti in 2005 and Shirley's husband passed away peacefully at the age of ninety-five (95) after making their home in Agat. To this day at almost one hundred one (101) years young, Shirley still makes necklaces and creates art; and she continues to practice as an artisan and lives next door to her daughter and son-in-law in the beautiful southern coastal village of Agat; now therefore, be it
