Relative to posthumously recognizing the late Joaquin "Kin" Pangelinan Perez for his many achievements, commending him for his lifetime of public service and his cultural and historical contributions toward the betterment and prosperity of his beloved island, and commemorating his legacy as a political writer and commentator; and to further expressing condolences to his family on his passing, on behalf of the people of Guam.

BE IT RESOLVED BY I MINA TRENTAI SINGKO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, the late Joaquin "Kin" Perez, a resident of the village of Santa Rita, was born on August 2, 1946 and passed away on October 21, 2019, at the age of seventy-three (73); and

WHEREAS, Kin graduated from Father Duenas Memorial School in 1964, and then graduated from the College of Guam in 1968; and he attended graduate school at George Washington University in Washington, D.C.; and

WHEREAS, Kin had a lifetime of stewardship, mentorship, and leadership; and it is now that legacy that we as a grateful community can emulate – that to honor the love for your home can sometimes be best shown by one's efforts to make it better; and

WHEREAS, Kin engaged in politics at the highest level of government down to the grassroots movements. His storied tenure in public service included his work with the Guam Power Authority and the Port Authority of Guam before he started his career in politics. He began his service in this important field working with the late Honorable Ricardo J. Bordallo during his second term as Governor of Guam, and subsequently served with the late Honorable Francisco R. Santos, former Senator; his son, the Honorable Francis E. Santos, also a former Senator; the late Antonio R. Unpingco, former Speaker; and the Honorable Madeleine Z. Bordallo, former Lieutenant Governor of Guam and Guam Delegate to the United States House of Representatives; and he had also served honorably as a member of the Guam Election Commission Board and the Guam Historic Preservation Review Board; and

WHEREAS, Kin offered his sage advice to federal officials, senators, governors, and delegates alike throughout his more than thirty (30) years of public service on a number of important issues locally, nationally and globally, including health, immigration, taxation, and self-determination; and

WHEREAS, Kin was a prolific political writer and commentator. It was not unusual to read a "Letter to the Editor" authored by him in local newspapers, where he offered his invaluable insight on local and federal issues alike; and he was well-known to many people as an outstanding teacher, counselor, and confidant to all, whether elected or not; and

WHEREAS, Kin was a longstanding leader within the Democratic Party of Guam, serving as Party Chairman from 2015 to 2017. He often provided direction, hope, and a new focus to many leaders and candidates who showed a sincere commitment to do better for his beloved island and her people; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that I Mina'trentai Singko Na Liheslaturan Guåhan does hereby, on behalf of the people of Guam, posthumously recognize the late Joaquin "Kin" Pangelinan Perez for his many achievements, commend him for his lifetime of public service and his cultural and historical contributions toward the betterment and prosperity of his beloved island, and commemorate his legacy as a political writer and commentator; and does further express condolences to his family on his passing, on behalf of the people of Guam; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to the family of the late Joaquin Pangelinan Perez; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hågan Guåhan.
