II. COMMITTEE PROCEEDING

Senator ben pangelinan: The next Bill on the agenda that was published and announced for a public hearing is Bill No. 249-30 (COR), An Act to Amend §52430 of Chapter 22 of 5GCA Relative to use of Government Funds for Disseminating Public Information. Senator Taitague, this is your bill.

Senator Taitague: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Basically this bill is just to add to this area on (c) which is ‘Public notice’, ‘advertisement’ or ‘message’ as used in this Section means all media including print, radio, television or internet service. Mr. Chair, this is basically for transparency purposes. We have found there might be some abuse in using government funds to promote an individual for self-interest other than really promoting the agency itself. We found this in a couple of incidences where even board members have used money to promote not necessarily, it may seem that it is promoting their agency but in some instances it looks like they are promoting themselves for re-election and this is something that we should not let happen and waste money of government funds in doing so and I thank you for also being an author of this bill.

Senator pangelinan: Thank you very much Senator Taitague.. There were no members of the public to sign up to testify on the bill at this time. But our office will continue to receive public comment and testimony on any of the bills being heard today.

ERIC Ode, an award-winning songwriter and author of children's books, will be visiting public and private schools on Guam this week and next, presenting his program, "Catch a Song, Stretch a Song. Turn It Inside Out.

Ode uses music and poetry to open doors to the writing process, according to his website.

Fourteen schools participated in the 2009 Read-A-Thon to raise the funds for his visit, according to a press release from the International Reading Association.

Ode will be IRA's guest at its general membership meeting on Saturday, March 13 at the Guam Reef Hotel from 8 to 11 a.m.

Parents and teachers are invited to buy books and browse teacher materials 8 a.m. The meeting begins at 9 a.m., according to the release.

Admission is free for members and there is a $5 charge for non-members.

Ode will also visit the Hagåtña Public Library for Story Hour on Saturday, March 20, from 2-10 a.m.

Stories of Women Entrepreneurs

(УОГ) – The publication international Journal of Entrepreneurship which features "Stories of Women Entrepreneurs" will be released today at 2 p.m. at the University of Guam's School of Business and Public Administration, ITE Lecture Hall.

Edited by UOG professor Maria Claré M. Ruano, Ph.D. and sponsored by the University of Guam School of Business and Public Administration, the issue features challenges, perseverance and success stories by women entrepreneurs from Guam, New York, the Philippines and an emerging Asian country.

Each paper highlights the universality of the women entrepreneur's persistent and unerring spirit and the rewards for hard work.

The papers in this issue highlight a number of important themes, including:

► How another entrepreneur in the family provides the inspiration to become women entrepreneurs in the cases of Mrs. De Aguahan, the evolving entrepreneur, Mrs. Victoria Bello-Jardirion, the fair lady entrepreneur; and one unidentified entrepreneur in "Spirit Inherited."

► How niche marketing can be an effective business strategy in the cases of Ms. Maria Cecilia Tamara, Ms. Victoria Bello-Jardirioan, the fair lady entrepreneur; Ms. Nicole Kawamura, Ms. Stacy Evans; and one unidentified.

► How some women entrepreneurs like Mrs. Sharon Davidson and Dr. Audrey Claire Lucero Carano were prepared by their education and work experience to seize the entrepreneurial opportunity, while others like Lee (Ms. Librada Angco Sablan Borja) and Nene (Ms. Nenema Maglish) did not have any preparation at all and yet took the chance to become women entrepreneurs as a means toward financial independence.

► How a woman entrepreneur faced common challenges but responded to them with perseverance as in the case of Ms. Dennis Mendiola-Herbst.

The Dean at the School of Business and Public Administration at the University of Guam, Dr. Anita Borja Enríquez, supported this journal issue and contributed one paper in this journal issue.

"I am also grateful to the Academy for providing us with the outlet through which we can share this issue with scholars, educators, students and entrepreneurs around the world. Special thanks are due to the members of my Editorial Review Board for their collegiality and service to our profession," Ruano said.

Consistent with the editorial practice of the Academy on all 17 journals it publishes, each paper in this issue has undergone a double-blind, peer-review process.

Information about the Allied Academies, the IE, and the other journals published by the Academy, as well as calls for conferences, are published at www.alliedacademies.org.
