II. SUMMARY OF TESTIMONY

VICE-SPEAKER CRUZ opened the hearing making all proper announcements; after which, he opened the floor to public testimony.

MR. MARCEL CAMACHO, former Guam Visitors Bureau General Manager and resident of Tamuning, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that Mr. Norbert “Bert” Unpingco is an experienced individual who started to build his career in tourism during his time in Alabama. He added that Mr. Unpingco applied the skills and ideas that he learned in Alabama to our island, thus helping tourism burgeon into Guam’s number one industry. Mr. Camacho also dispelled notions that Mr. Unpingco is too old for the job in addition to reasserting that Mr. Unpingco continues to have the heart of the people in mind.

MR. FELIX AGUON, resident from the village of Dededo, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR) in addition to submitting written testimony (attached), expressing his belief that Mr. Unpingco is an honest man with an unfailing integrity who remains extremely cognizant of what goes on in the community. He also believes that age will not be an impediment in Mr. Unpingco’s ability to serve as the Alternate Director to the Guam Visitors Bureau Board of Directors and will still be able to be “Mr. Tourism” for Guam. He also submitted written testimony (attached) for the record.

MS. MARY TORRE, President of the Guam Hotel and Restaurant Association, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR). Working with Mr. Unpingco for the last three years, she stated, has allowed her to learn from him as a person and leader. She stated that Mr. Unpingco has a wealth of experience, is a great ambassador for the industry, and should be strongly considered and confirmed (through Resolution No. 41) as the Alternate Director.

MR. TOM BARCINAS, resident from the village of Merizo, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), and read his written testimony (attached) into the record. He emphasized that Mr. Unpingco, also known as “Mr. Tourism,” is well known everywhere and remains an asset to tourism on Guam.

MS. PILAR C. LUJAN, former Senator and President of the GovGuam Association of Retired Persons, Inc., appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), and read her written testimony (attached) into the record. She wondered why Mr. Unpingco is only being considered for an alternate position. Ms. Lujan stated that Mr. Unpingco tirelessly promotes Guam on a consistent basis. His love for tourism and the island, Ms. Lujan contends, can also be seen through his published pictorial entitled Portrait of Guam, U.S.A.

MS. PILAR BURGESS, resident of Nimitz Hills, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that Mr. Unpingco has demonstrated hard work and innovation in the industry’s early stages. Serving with Mr. Unpingco on the Board of GVB, she states that she can testify to Mr. Unpingco’s competence, integrity, knowledge and motivation. To Ms. Burgess, age is typically inconsequential, but with Mr. Unpingco age comes with wisdom.

MR. GERRY PEREZ, General Manager of the Guam Visitors Bureau, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), testifying to how Mr. Unpingco is uniquely qualified for the position.

MR. EDWARD DUENAS, former Senator and resident from the village of Sinajana, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), and read his written testimony (attached) into the record. He urged that now is the time to capitalize on Mr. Unpingco’s knowledge of tourism. Mr. Duenas stated that Mr. Unpingco brings with him innovative ideas and commitment to the industry. He also went on to state that he was happy to once again see Mr. Unpingco at the forefront of Guam’s tourism industry. He looks forward to an expeditious confirmation.

MR. DAVE TYDINGCO, Chairman of the Board for the Guam Visitors Bureau, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), asking for the support and confirmation of Mr. Unpingco’s nomination. He asserted that it is necessary for Mr. Unpingco to remain on the board because his presence keeps Guam grounded as the island faces new challenges. His intrinsic ability to communicate with legislators remains paramount.
VICE SPEAKER CRUZ clarified the probable rationale for holding a public hearing for Mr. Unpingco.

MR. NORBERT "BERT" UNPINGCO, a tourism consultant, appeared before the Committee in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that he was eager to get back into the tourism industry despite the fact that others think he is too old. He also stated that the lack of participation of the local people in the tourism industry concerned him. Quality, according to Mr. Unpingco, is missing from the tourism industry in Guam.

SENATOR PANGelinan congratulated Mr. Unpingco for his continual commitment to the tourism industry and encouraged him to continue his hard work. He also expressed his support for Mr. Unpingco’s nomination.

SENATOR ESPALDON echoed the sentiments of Senator Pangelinan, stating that Mr. Unpingco continually works hard and has stayed at the forefront of the tourism industry. He also questioned Mr. Unpingco if he will be testifying on Bill 45.

SENATOR RECTOR praised Mr. Unpingco’s ability to draw support from both Republicans and Democrats. He expressed his support for Mr. Unpingco’s many efforts as well.

SENATOR AGUON asked Mr. Unpingco for his thoughts on what he believed would be the most trying challenge that the tourism industry will be faced with over the next two years.

NORBERT “BERT” UNPINGCO shared some ideas of how to reinvigorate the tourism industry on island, highlighting the importance of identifying Guam as part of America, the need to brand Guam as a tropical resort island, and also the need to play off of Guam’s resources, strengths, and her people.

SENATOR AGUON thanked Mr. Unpingco for offering himself to the people of Guam and commended him for his passion of the tourism industry. He also brought up the issue of a possible discrepancy in Mr. Unpingco’s middle initial as printed on the resolution.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY

MR.ROKE BLAS AND MR. ROBERT HOFMANN, Mayor and Vice Mayor of Sinajana, jointly submitted written testimony (attached) in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that Mr. Unpingco has unique leadership skills and experiences that make him a worthy candidate.

MR. JIMMY K. AVERY, owner of Avery Properties, submitted written testimony (attached) in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that Mr. Unpingco has a wealth of knowledge as it pertains to the realm of tourism. He suggests that Guam take advantage of his wisdom and expertise to improve the island’s current condition.

MR. JOSEPH DUENAS, Director of Parks Recreation and Historic Preservation, submitted written testimony (attached) in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), stating that Mr.
Unpingco continually demonstrates acts of selfless service to the island through his numerous contributions to various tourism related committees.

MR. FELIX C. BENAVENTE, Principal of FC Benavente Planners, submitted written testimony (attached) in SUPPORT of Resolution No. 41 (COR), mentioning that Mr. Unpingco has earned a sense of credibility and influence. He also states that Mr. Unpingco is the voice of Guam tourism.

The Public Hearing on Resolution No. 41 (COR) was adjourned at 9:55 A.M.

Please note: An audio/video DVD recording is available for a review of more details of the testimonies summarized above and/or the open discussion during this Public Hearing.

Good Morning Senators:

My name is Felix Aguon and I am here to testify on behalf of my good friend Mr. Guam Tourism, Bert R. Unpingco.

I have known Bert for about 30 years and during that time he has shown me of his deep passion for the proper development of tourism and the visitor industry on Guam. He was my boss at one point and it was a true enjoyment for me to work with him. He is a true master of his art and it is amazing the level of passion this man has for doing what he does.

He has worked as the GM for the Guam Visitors Bureau and as a member of the board on different occasions and even when he is not working for tourism on an official capacity he has been rather vocal in his support for having positive things done for Guam in our most important private industry.

Even when he is met with adversity his personality has shown that he can overcome many kinds of pressures from the outside. With our visitor industry currently at risk and with the level of downturn we have had over the past few years I can say that the with the addition of Mr. Unpingco into the GVB board may be one of the things that is absolutely necessary for us to make a significant comeback in the near future.

He has a tremendous number of interesting ideas that should have more time paid attention to them. He will continue to have my support on the GVB as a board member and any capacity he deems fit to enter. Of course I would be happy to answer questions regarding my experience with Mr. Unpingco and his time doing tourism.

TESTIMONY

March 16, 2009

Members of the committee, greetings to all of you. My name is Tom Barcinas and I came here today to testify in behalf of Mr. Bert Unpingco.

Bert is a household name. Bert has earned the name Mr. Tourism and rightly so! Mr. Tourism is a familiar name from Umatac to Yigo to California to New York to Alabama to Japan to everywhere! Bert is that fellow with a wide grin on his face, night and day. Bert is that fellow whose second love is tourism. His first love is, of course, reserved to a very wonderful lady who tolerates him for always being away from her on the business of tourism. Tourism is all he talks about. He even dreams about tourism. He has the energy, enthusiasm, and the passion for tourism that is unmatched. If he could sire tourism, I am sure that he will and hundreds of them.

As everyone knows of his qualifications and accomplishments, I am not going to bore you by reading off from a long list. Rather, I want to urge his confirmation. He is a definite asset to tourism for Guam and I guarantee that Guam will benefit from his dedicated services. He is a winner and a winner is what Guam needs. I urge for his confirmation. Thank you.

Tom Barcinas

Dear Mr. Chairman and Members of the Committee on Tourism:

I, Pilar C. Lujan, citizen of Chalan Pago, Guam, come to testify with strong support and recommendation for Mr. Norbert Unpingco to be confirmed as alternate member of the Board of Directors of the Guam Visitors Bureau.

As much as I observed personalities in the tourism industry, no one on island measure up to the commitment and dedication that Mr. Bert Unpingco has for tourism on Guam. Bert's dreams, lives, talks and promotes Guam every time he meets people regardless if they be natives or visitors from elsewhere. He is very knowledgeable of the history, culture, and language of the Chamorro people and I cannot think of anyone who is as informed, proud, and enthusiastic to verbalize anything and everything beautiful and important about Guam and her people.

Bert has demonstrated his love and commitment for tourism. Not only does he talk about Guam, he also produced printed materials including pictures of the Catholic churches on Guam and the fiestas celebrated in the respective villages. Most recently, he published a beautiful hard bound book called Portrait of Guam USA.

As recipient of prestigious and distinguished awards in recognition for his contribution in the advancement of tourism on Guam, Bert deserves a spot as an alternate member of the Board of Directors of the Guam Visitors Bureau. His passion and commitment in the visitors industry has not dimmed.

I strongly urge his confirmation.

Thank you,

Pilar C. Lujan
Hon. Benjamin J. F. Cruz

30th Guam Legislature

Mr. Chairman and members of your committee:

Many thanks for the opportunity to appear before this committee. I am here to favorably testify on behalf of Bert Reyes Unpingco, a nominee for the Guam Visitors Bureau board of directors. Bert is well known to most of us, especially to those who are engaged in the tourist industry of Guam. His impressive reputation in the visitor and hospitality arena has preceded him to this morning's public hearing. After all, I believe that the people of Guam know him better as "Mr. Guam Tourism" and his list of achievements in the tourist industry is like a litany of successes that not too many here on Guam can compare with.

If I may say, it's about time that someone decides to again capitalize on Bert's expertise and unwavering confidence in Guam as a world-class destination for global visitors to enjoy and appreciate. I take off my hat to Speaker Judi Won Pat for also "discovering" Bert Unpingco as the first elected Governor, the late Carlos G. Camacho did four decades ago. When Governor Camacho took office in 1969, Guam's tourism venture into was in its infancy and needed a real jump start. He discovered a local boy who made a huge success in building up Alabama's struggling visitors industry the 1960s to the point where that southern state eventually won the nationally prestigious Discover America Award. Knowing of his accomplishment, Camacho asked Bert to come back home and Bert dutifully agreed, envisioning the challenge with a burning desire to make Guam a world class destination.

Appointed as executive director of the Guam Visitors Bureau, Bert wasted no time in building the foundation for Guam's tourism. He helped create a climate that attracted foreign investments to build hotels and other visitors facilities, lured s few more major airlines to begin servicing Guam and undertook an aggressive promotion in Japan and other countries in the Pacific Rim to discover Guam as their new leisure playground. He rallied the community to help beautify Guam, develop scenic and historical sites, and enliven Guam’s culture and heritage. When his term of appointment ended, Bert stepped down but he certainly left the island’s visitors industry moving in a forward direction that eventually grew in strength and stature to be what it is today – indeed, a real major economic catalyst for Guam.

Although no longer at the helm of the visitors bureau, Bert continues to contribute to the island’s tourism in one way or another. His innovative ideas, his passion for promoting Guam, and his relentless commitment to the island community has earned him the nickname, “Mr. Guam Tourism.” Recently, he put together a map of the island designed to help visitors find various points of interests, scenic and historic, and also serves as a cultural guide for sightseeing. But more significant is his publication of a first-class pictorial book titled “Portrait of Guam USA” which on sale last year.

In the forward of this book, Bert writes:

“This 200-page pictorial captures a rare glimpse of Guam’s beauty with hints of never-before-seen images that will leave even the island residents guessing their location. As your eyes travel through each page, Guam’s History/Culture, Villages, Beauty of Guam/Scenic sites, Recreation and People will slowly come alive in your mind, leaving you in awe to want to visit - or never leave this world-class destination in Micronesia.”

I am happy to see that Bert will be again in the forefront of our visitors industry. As a member of the Guam Visitors Bureau’s Board of Directors, he will be able to once again lend his expertise, his vast experience and his know-how to help boost our lagging visitors industry. Indeed, he will be a great asset to Guam’s tourism as he has been in the past four decades. I strongly urge for his expeditious confirmation.

Si Yuus Maase and thank you this opportunity to appear before you this morning.

Dear Senator Cruz:

Buenas yan Hafa Adai! We are writing in support of Mr. Norbert R. Unpingco’s confirmation as Board Member of the Guam Visitors Bureau. Mr. Unpingco has a wealth of knowledge and experience in the tourism field. He has been very instrumental and helpful in building the relationships between the Mayor’s Council of Guam and the tourism stakeholders and business leaders.

As a proud son of Guam, his capabilities and expertise have earned him many awards and accolades from countless groups, organizations and clubs throughout his career. Through his leadership and experiences we have a better understanding of how we can make Guam a world class destination. He is honest and dedicated to improving the overall quality of life for the people of Guam and has always made himself available to us mayors to answer any questions we may have. SPEAKER, 30TH GUAM LEGISLATURE

MADAM SPEAKER,

I have learned that Mr. Bert Unpingco has been appointed as an alternate boardmember for the Guam Visitors Bureau.

I have known Mr. Unpingco for more than 10 years. Our association has been very close in business, church, and friendship. It is my opinion that the wealth of knowledge and experience that he has is not being fully utilized to benefit the people of Guam and the tourism industry.

In the past, Mr. Unpingco, as head of the tourist bureau for Northern Alabama, lead tourism from near nothing to nearly 60 million a year.

On Guam, as head of the Guam Visitors Bureau (1970-1982), he lead GVB through some of its fastest growth and greatest productivity that this island had ever seen.

One of the ideas that Mr. Unpingco has always had is to share the benefits of tourism with the people of Guam.

It is my hope that the people in the positions that can make it happen, will take advantage of his wisdom, knowledge, and expertise to improve the deplorable situation and the lack of progress that we have today in the tourism industry.

Sincerely,

JIMMY K. AVERY

Buenas yan Hafa Adai! It is with pleasure and confidence, that I tender this letter of support for the nomination of my friend and mentor Mr. Bert Reyes Unpingco, to the Board of the Guam Visitor’s Bureau.

As we all know Mr. Unpingco has been both a pioneer and ambassador at the forefront of our tourism industry. I know of no other person more dedicated to the advancement of our island’s tourism agenda than he. His life’s work and passion for the industry have earned him the indisputable title, “Mr. Guam Tourism.”

Over the years, I have had the pleasure of working closely with Mr. Unpingco on many committees dealing with island beatification, the revitalization of Hagatna, and our tourism industry. While my job requires me to serve on these committees, Mr. Unpingco serves voluntarily giving selflessly of his own time.

Should he be confirmed, I have no doubt that Mr. Unpingco will leverage his new post effectively, to advance our island’s tourism agenda, for the overall good of our community.

Hafa Adai Madam Speaker,

I am pleased to submit this letter of support to Resolution No. 41 appointing Mr. “Bert” Unpingco to serve as the alternate Director to the Guam Visitors Bureau Board of Directors.

I have known Bert for many years both as a friend and as a professional associate. He procures every opportunity to showcase with pride, the beauty and cultural heritage Guam and its people.

SPOTLIGHT: Bert Reyes Unpingco
By: Audreya J.P. Taitano

Norbert “Bert” Unpingco is a man with a rich history, an admirable zest for life, and a sense of patriotism for his country and his island that is simply hard to beat. Known to many as “Mr. Guam Tourism,” Bert has the gift of sharing stories with such intricate details – starting with the olden days of Guam and his memorable era in Alabama and culminating today with his journeys on our lovely island in the new millennium.

We’ve sat and talked multiple times. Like all proud fathers, he shared with me the great accomplishments his children have made and the paths they paved for themselves. He and his wife Virginia (Jeanie) share the abundant blessings of 9 children, 27 grandchildren, and 4 great-grandchildren. It’s a wonder Bert’s able to keep up with all the happenings of his large, Chamorro family, but he does perfectly at sharing how each person brings their own unique talents to the clan. From housewife and doctor to artist and realtor, Bert’s family line is a true symbol of who he is as a father, husband, and community leader.

Born October 9, 1933 to Eliza Guevara Reyes and Jose Aguon Unpingco, Bert was one of the many Chamorros that endured the both the beauty of old Guam and the hardships of the Japanese occupation of World War II. His experiences in both this bright and dark side of the island’s history inevitably molded his path as Guam’s greatest ambassador.

He joined the United States Air Force and spent several stints around the world before an honorable discharge in 1958. In the midst of his graceful exit from successful service in the military, Bert found himself in Alabama during a time of great growth. His work ethic, energy and creativity turned into one of the states smoking guns for tourism. From 1965 to 1970, Bert served as the first executive director of tourism for Alabama, and in 1970, Alabama became the winner for of the “Discover America Award.” 24 years later, Bert was invited back to Alabama as the guest of honor for the 40th Anniversary of the Alabama Mountain Lakes Association. Since his reign as executive director, the Alabama Mountain Lakes Region has exceeded $1.3 billion income annually from tourism.

But Bert’s life goal was to ultimately serve his island, and in the early 70’s that dream came true. A distant phone call came to him from Guam while in his stateside residence – then governor of Guam, Carlos G. Camacho, requested Bert’s presence at home to lead Guam in becoming a world-class tourist destination. One plane ticket and thousands of miles later, Bert was home for good, but this time, he would become the island’s pioneer in tourism.

Bert’s work has been phenomenal. Under his watch, Guam has won multiple tourism awards, been recognized nationally for groundbreaking marketing campaigns, and become a beacon of travel in the Asia Pacific Rim. And though retired, Bert is still hustling as our island’s biggest fan. He knows the beauty of Guam. He preserves it. He promotes it. And most importantly, he lives it.

The awards and honors are endless for Mr. Guam Tourism. He has championed the effort to help Guam evolve as a competitor in the destination industry and has established programs that will be in place for the good of Guam for decades to come. He explained himself best when he told me a great story of sitting outside a church in Alabama when he and a young African-American man exchange a few words. The two men sat together for a few short moments acquainting themselves, talking about where they’re from and what they do. After speaking briefly, the man said to Bert, “Bert, who are you? I want to know who Bert Unpingco really is.” Bert replied, “All I can say is that I’m Bert Unpingco from Guam.” The man said, “Good. Stay like that.” The man was Martin Luther King, Jr.

On that day two, men were cordial and friendly to one another. Both on very different paths but both destined to do great things.
