Winston leads Spartans to win over Wolverines

ASSOCIATED PRESS

No. 14 Michigan State 87, No. 12 Michigan 69: Cassius Winston scored a career-high 32 points and Xavier Tillman fell one point short of his career high with 20, leading host Michigan State to a victory over Michigan on Sunday.

The Spartans (12-3, 4-0 Big Ten) were ahead the entire game, leading by as many as 13 points in the first half and earning a bigger cushion in the second, to beat their rivals for a fourth consecutive time. Michigan State has won seven straight and is the only Big Ten team without a conference loss.

The Wolverines (10-4, 1-2) have lost four of their last seven games after starting 7-0 and going from unranked to No. 4 under first-year coach Juwan Howard. The former Fab Five star faced Michigan State for the first time as a coach after going 5-1 in the series as a player.

Howard became unhinged after not getting a call he wanted in the second half. He was called for a technical early in the half after leaving the sideline and going onto the court in protest.

Shortly thereafter, Michigan State coach Tom Izzo was also called for a technical foul in the highly charged game.

The Wolverines were missing forward Isaiah Livers, who was out for a second straight game with a groin injury. Livers is averaging 13.6 points per game and is the team's top 3-point shooter.

Brandon Johns replaced Livers in the starting lineup and matched a career high with 12 points.

Michigan center Jon Teske fouled out after scoring four of his 15 points in the second half. Xavier Simpson had 14 points and eight assists while Franz Wagner added 10 points for the Wolverines.

Winston and Tillman did more than just score. Winston had nine assists and Tillman had 11 rebounds.

No. 20 Dayton 80, Saint Joseph's 67: Trey Landers and Ryan Mikesell each scored 18 points as Dayton (11-3, 2-0 Atlantic 10) fought off some sluggishness and pulled away for a win over Saint Joseph's (3-11, 0-2) in Philadelphia.

Ibit Watson and Obi Toppin added 15 points apiece and Jalen Crutcher scored 10 for the Flyers.

Ryan Daly scored 22 points to lead Saint Joseph's. Cameron Brown scored 16 and Myles Douglas had 15.

The Flyers ended a nine-game losing streak at Hawk Hill dating back to a 66-62 win on Jan. 29, 2000. But Saint Joseph's, which has lost 10 of 11 and was coming off an 84-52 loss at Richmond on Thursday night, managed to keep it close for much of the afternoon.

Dayton struggled from the floor, never getting into the offensive flow it showed on Thursday night during an 84-58 win over La Salle. That allowed Saint Joseph's to hang around in the first half despite shooting 11 of 27.

The Hawks sprinted out to a six-point lead less than a minute into the second half thanks to two 3-pointers by Brown. Dayton responded with an 11-2 run to reclaim the lead, and the Flyers did not trail again.

Dayton took control of the game after Toppin picked up his fourth foul and was sent to the bench at the 14:40 mark of the second half, forcing more of a perimeter game that punched holes in the Hawks' defensive scheme of collapsing in the lane.
