AN ACT TO AMEND § 80.72(b) OF ARTICLE 5, CHAPTER 80; AND TO AMEND §§ 85.10 AND 85.14, AND TO ADD A NEW § 85.61 TO CHAPTER 85, ALL OF TITLE 9, GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO IMPROVING THE GUAM PAROLE BOARD PROCESSES.

1        BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF GUAM:

2        Section 1. Legislative Findings and Intent. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds 3 that the number of persons applying to the Guam Parole Board for parole has 4 increased significantly in the past several years. The Guam Parole Board has been 5 inundated with parole requests. Parole requests made by the same person annually

1 are rejected every year due to the circumstances of the crimes and based upon the 2 Guam Parole Board's review and application of the law to these requests.

3         These parole requests and hearings are traumatic for the victims of violent 4 crimes, and the loved ones of the victims of violent crimes, and re-victimize them.
5 Serial parole requests by violent offenders require the victims and loved ones of 6 victims to appear at parole hearings every year to oppose or object to the parole
7 requests. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that the serial, annual parole requests require 8 the victims of violent crimes, and their loved ones, to relive the pain and trauma of 9 the victims' deaths or injuries and to experience the loss and grief over losing their 10 loved ones every year, year after year. Many of the victims and their loved ones 11 travel long distances to attend the parole hearings and the stress of travel is added on 12 top of the already difficult circumstances. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that persons 13 imprisoned for violent crimes who have applied for parole and who have been denied 14 parole for two (2) consecutive years should not be eligible to apply for parole again 15 for at least four (4) years from the date of denial of the last parole request in order to 16 spare the victims and their loved ones further trauma, pain and grief.

17         In addition, current law provides that the board consists of seven (7) members, 18 requiring a quorum of four (4) to meet and make decisions. The Guam Parole Board 19 is comprised of members who sit on the board on a volunteer basis, which makes it 20 more difficult for members to attend full-day meetings when they have jobs, become 21 sick, or go off-island. This has resulted in great difficulties in obtaining the number 22 of persons necessary for a quorum, resulting in backlogs and delays in determining 23 the parole applications. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that when the previous law, 24 which allowed for five (5) members and a quorum of three (3) was in effect, the 25 board had less difficulty obtaining a quorum or having backlogs of undetermined 26 parole applications.

1 Crime victims and families of victims have rights under the Crime Victim's 2 Rights Act of 2004. I Liheslaturan Guåhan finds that the rights of crime victims and 3 their families extended in 8 GCA Chapter 160 are necessary to ensure that they are 4 treated with dignity, respect, courtesy and sensitivity, and that their safety is 5 prioritized.

6 Section 2. § 80.72(b) of Article 5, Chapter 80, Title 9, Guam Code
7 Annotated, is hereby amended to read:

8 “(b) The Board shall consider the desirability of parole of each inmate 9 at least sixty (60) days prior to his/her first eligibility. Following such 10 consideration, the Board shall issue a formal order granting or denying parole.
11 If parole is denied, the Board shall state in its order the reasons therefor and 12 the approximate date of next consideration, which shall not be more than one 13 (1) year from the date of the previous consideration, except that if a person 14 imprisoned for the commission of a violent crime has been denied parole by 15 the Board for two (2) consecutive years, the Board shall set the next 16 consideration four (4) years from the date of the previous consideration. Said 17 person shall not be eligible for parole again for at least four (4) years after the 18 date of the last denial of parole. The Board need not state any reasons for 19 denial if to do so would impair a course of rehabilitative treatment of the 20 inmate.”

21 Section 3. § 85.10 of Chapter 85, Title 9, Guam Code Annotated, is hereby 22 amended to read:

23 “§ 85.10. Guam Parole Board Created.

24 (a) There is in the Executive Branch of the government of Guam, a 25 Guam Parole Board, hereinafter referred to as the Board, consisting of five (5)
26 members appointed by I Maga'låhi [the Governor], by and with the advice 27 and consent of I Liheslatura [the Legislature]. Only persons, who by their

1 knowledge and experience are prepared to perform efficiently the duties of 2 the Board as hereinafter provided, shall be eligible for such appointment. Any 3 person holding an elected office shall not be eligible to serve on the Guam
4 Parole Board. No person who has a family member of the first consanguinity
5 serving a local sentence, or on parole, shall be eligible to serve on the Board.

6 (b) The composition of the Board members shall be comprised of the 7 following, with the minimum background and experience:

8 (1) at least one (1) Board member shall have at least five (5)
9 years of experience in law enforcement or other criminal justice work,
10 or a baccalaureate degree in criminal justice from a college or university 11 accredited by a United States accrediting body recognized by the 12 Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) or its successor, 13 or an equivalent foreign university as determined consistent with 17
14 GCA § 3104(a)(1), or professional experience in these areas of study;

15 (2) at least one (1) Board member shall have at least a 16 baccalaureate degree or higher in social work, sociology or psychology, 17 or a medical degree from a college or university accredited by a United 18 States accrediting body recognized by the Council on Higher Education
19 Accreditation (CHEA) or its successor, or an equivalent foreign 20 university as determined consistent with 17 GCA § 3104(a)(1);

21 (3) at least one (1) Board member shall have at least five (5)
22 years of experience in human resources development, or legal 23 background or professional experience in these areas of study;

24 (4) at least two (2) Board members shall come from the public 25 at-large; and

26 (5) all Guam Parole Board members shall be of good moral 27 character.”

1           Section 4. § 85.14 of Chapter 85, Title 9, Guam Code Annotated, is hereby
2 amended to read:

3           “§ 85.14. Chairperson Appointed: Meetings at Least Monthly.

4           The Board shall elect a chairperson from among its members. The 5 chairperson shall be elected by its members every two (2) years. The Board
6 shall meet regularly at least once a month. Special meetings may be called by 7 the chairperson. Not less than three (3) voting members present shall 8 constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the affirmative vote
9 of three (3) members present shall be required to make any action of the Board
10 valid. No action shall be taken by the Board at any meetings or hearings, 11 unless a quorum is present. The election for chairperson from among its 12 members shall follow upon enactment of this Act.”

13           Section 5. A new § 85.61 of Chapter 85, Title 9, Guam Code Annotated, is 14 hereby added to read:

15           “§ 85.61. Adherence to Crime Victim’s Rights Act of 2004.

16           Pursuant to 8 GCA Chapter 160, also known as the Crime Victim’s 17 Rights Act of 2004, the Board and Parole Officers shall adhere to all of their 18 responsibilities and honor all of the rights afforded to victims as outlined in 19 the Chapter.”

20           Section 6. Severability. If any provision of this Act or its application to any 21 person or circumstance is found to be invalid, or contrary to law, such invalidity
22 shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect 23 without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this 24 Act are severable.

25           Section 7. Effective Date. This Act shall become effective upon 26 enactment.
