Re: Bill No. 102-35 (LS) – An Act to Add a New Chapter 53 to Title 7 of the Guam Code Annotated, Relative to the Creation of Civil Remedies for Victims of Intentional or Threatened Disclosure of Intimate Images; and to Further Citing this Act as the 'Guam Uniform Civil Remedies for Unauthorized Disclosure of Intimate Images Act of 2019'

Dear Madame Speaker:

Intimate images shared or created when two people are in a relationship should be viewed by whom and in the context for which they were made. Such images, when publicly disseminated for consumption by others without consent, can be emotional weapons to wield revenge for perceived or actual injuries suffered as a result of the dissolution of a relationship. As a community, we should not allow such bullying tactics to pervade.

Bill No. 102-35, “An Act to Add a New Chapter 53 to Title 7 of the Guam Code Annotated, Relative to the Creation of Civil Remedies for Victims of Intentional or Threatened Disclosure of Intimate Images; and to Further Citing this Act as the 'Guam Uniform Civil Remedies for Unauthorized Disclosure of Intimate Images Act of 2019,’” which is now Public Law No. 35-67, gives some measure of recourse to those who suffer the damages of what is often called “revenge porn.” This Administration joins the Legislature in supporting civility -- even where relationships have fractured.

Senseseremente,

JOSHUA F. TENORIO
Åkto Maga'låhen Guahan
Acting Governor of Guam

AN ACT TO ADD A NEW CHAPTER 53 TO TITLE 7 OF
THE GUAM CODE ANNOTATED, RELATIVE TO THE CREATION OF CIVIL REMEDIES FOR VICTIMS OF INTENTIONAL OR THREATENED DISCLOSURE OF
INTIMATE IMAGES; AND TO FURTHER CITING THIS ACT AS THE "GUAM UNIFORM CIVIL REMEDIES FOR UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF INTIMATE IMAGES ACT OF 2019."

1 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF GUAM:

2 Section 1. A new Chapter 53 is added to Title 7 of the Guam Code

3 Annotated, to read as follows:

1 (f) identifiable means recognizable by a person other than the
2 depicted individual:

3 (1) from an intimate image itself; or

4 (2) from the intimate image and identifying characteristic
5 displayed in connection with the intimate image;

6 (g) identifying characteristic means information that may be used to
7 identify a depicted individual;

8 (h) individual means a human being.

9 (i) intimate image means a photograph, film, video recording, or 10 other similar medium that shows:

11 (1) the uncovered genitals, pubic area, anus, or female post-
12 pubescent nipple of a depicted individual; or

13 (2) the depicted individual engaging in or being subjected to sexual 14 conduct.

15 (j) parent means an individual recognized as a parent under Guam law.

16 (k) person means an individual, estate, business or nonprofit entity, public
17 corporation, government or governmental subdivision, agency or instrumentality, or 18 other legal entity;

19 (l) private means:

20 (1) created or obtained under circumstances in which the depicted
21 individual had a reasonable expectation of privacy; or

22 (2) made accessible through theft, bribery, extortion, fraud, false
23 pretenses, voyeurism, or exceeding authorized access to an account, message,
24 file, device, resource, or property;

25 (m) sexual conduct includes:

26 (1) masturbation;

27 (2) genital, anal, or oral sex;

- 1 (3) sexual penetration of, or with, an object;
- 2 (4) bestiality; or
- 3 (5) the transfer of semen onto a depicted individual.

4 § 53103. Civil Action.

5 (a) Except as otherwise provided in § 53104 of this Chapter, a depicted
6 individual who is identifiable and who suffers harm from a person's intentional
7 disclosure or threatened disclosure of an intimate image that was private without the 8 depicted individual's consent has a cause of action against the person if the person
9 knew or acted with reckless disregard for whether:

- 10 (1) the depicted individual did not consent to the disclosure;
- 11 (2) the intimate image was private; and
- 12 (3) the depicted individual was identifiable.

13 (b) The following conduct by a depicted individual does not establish by 14 itself that the individual consented to the disclosure of the intimate image which is 15 the subject of the action or that the individual lacked a reasonable expectation of 16 privacy:

- 17 (1) consent to the creation of the image; or
- 18 (2) previous consensual disclosure of the image.

19 (c) A depicted individual who does not consent to sexual conduct or the 20 uncovering of the part of the body depicted in the intimate image of the individual 21 retains a reasonable expectation of privacy even if the image was created when the 22 individual was in a public place.

23 (d) This Section is not the exclusive remedy for an intentional disclosure
24 or threatened disclosure of an intimate image, and a plaintiff may also bring any 25 other available common law or statutory claims.

26 § 53104. Exceptions to Liability.

1 (a) A person is not liable under this Chapter if the person proves that
2 disclosure of, or a threat to disclose, an intimate image was:

3 (1) made in good faith in:

4 (A) law enforcement;

5 (B) a legal proceeding; or

6 (C) medical education or treatment; or

7 (2) made in good faith in the reporting or investigation of:

8 (A) unlawful conduct;

9 (B) unsolicited and unwelcome conduct; or

10 (C) a matter of public concern or public interest; or

11 (3) reasonably intended to assist the depicted individual.

12 (b) Subject to Subsection (c) of this Section, a defendant who is a parent,
13 legal guardian, or individual with legal custody of a child is not liable under this 14 Chapter for a disclosure or threatened disclosure of an intimate image, as defined in 15 § 53102(i), of the child.

16 (c) If a defendant asserts an exception to liability under Subsection (b) of 17 this Section, the exception does not apply if the plaintiff proves the disclosure was:

18 (1) prohibited by law other than this Subsection; or

19 (2) made for the purposes of sexual arousal, sexual gratification,
20 humiliation, degradation, or monetary or commercial gain.

21 (d) Disclosure of, or a threat to disclose, an intimate image is not a matter
22 of public concern or public interest solely because the depicted individual is a public
23 figure.

24 § 53105. Plaintiff's Privacy.

25 In an action under this Chapter:

26 (a) a plaintiff may proceed using a pseudonym in place of the true
27 name of the plaintiff;

1 (b) the court may exclude or redact from all pleadings and documents filed
2 in the action other identifying characteristics of the plaintiff;

3 (c) a plaintiff to whom Subsection (a) or (b) of this Section applies shall
4 file with the court and serve on the defendant a confidential information form that
5 includes the excluded or redacted plaintiff's name and other identifying 6 characteristics; and

7 (d) the court may make further orders as necessary to protect the identity
8 and privacy of a plaintiff.

9 § 53106. Remedies.

10 (a) In an action under this Chapter, a prevailing plaintiff may recover:

11 (1) the greater of:

12 (A) economic and noneconomic damages proximately caused
13 by the defendant's disclosures or threatened disclosures, including
14 damages for emotional distress whether or not accompanied by other 15 damages; or

16 (B)(i) statutory damages not to exceed Ten Thousand Dollars
17 ($10,000) against each defendant found liable under this Chapter for all 18 disclosures and threatened disclosures by the defendant of which the 19 plaintiff knew or reasonably should have known when filing the action
20 or which became known during the pendency of the action;

21 (ii) in determining the amount of statutory damages under this
22 Subsection (a)(1)(B), consideration must be given to the age of the 23 parties at the time of the disclosure or threatened disclosure, the number 24 of disclosures or threatened disclosures made by the defendant, the 25 breadth of distribution of the image by the defendant, and other
26 exacerbating or mitigating factors;

1 (2) an amount equal to any monetary gain made by the defendant
2 from disclosure of the intimate image; and

3 (3) punitive damages as allowed under Guam law other than this
4 Chapter.

5 (b) In an action under this Chapter, the court may award a prevailing
6 plaintiff:

7 (1) reasonable attorney fees and costs; and

8 (2) additional relief, including injunctive relief.

9 (c) This Chapter does not affect a right or remedy available under Guam
10 law other than this Chapter.

11 § 53107. Statute of Limitations.

12 (a) An action under § 53103(a) for:

13 (1) an unauthorized disclosure may not be brought later than four (4)
14 years from the date the disclosure was discovered or should have been 15 discovered with the exercise of reasonable diligence; and

16 (2) a threat to disclose may not be brought later than four (4) years
17 from the date of the threat to disclose.

18 (b) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (c) of this Section, this
19 Section is subject to the tolling statutes of Guam.

20 (c) In an action under § 53103(a) by a depicted individual who was a minor
21 on the date of the disclosure or threat to disclose, the time specified in Subsection
22 (a) of this Section does not begin to run until the depicted individual attains the age
23 of majority.

24 § 53108. Construction.

25 (a) This Chapter shall be construed to be consistent with the federal 26 Communications Decency Act of 1996, 47 U.S.C. § 230.

1 (b) This Chapter may not be construed to alter the Government Claims Act,
2 5 GCA Chapter 6.”

3 Section 2. This Act shall be effective upon enactment.

4 Section 3. Severability. If any provision of this Act or its application to any 5 person or circumstance is found to be invalid or contrary to law, such invalidity shall
6 not affect other provisions or applications of this Act that can be given effect without
7 the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are 8 severable.
