Relative to recognizing the 2022 UOG Charter Day Committee for their work in continuing to invest in and strengthen the institution for the benefit of our people, our island, the region, and the world; and congratulating the students, alumni, faculty, staff, and administration of the University of Guam (UOG) on the celebration of the fifty-fourth (54th) year anniversary of its Charter, and the seventieth (70th) year anniversary of its founding.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI SAIS NA LIHESLATURAN GUAHAN:

WHEREAS, 2022 marks the 54th anniversary of the Charter of the University of Guam (UOG) and the 70th anniversary of the founding of the University, which was established in 1952 as the Territorial College of Guam and renamed the University of Guam in 1968; and

WHEREAS, since its founding, UOG has conferred over 19,914 degrees to students who serve as the foundation of our island's and region's professional workforce and who strengthen our economy as they establish themselves in businesses and in the community as accountants, scientists, nurses, teachers, entrepreneurs, social workers, and many other specialties; and

WHEREAS, UOG alumni maintain a strong, vibrant presence in all sectors of our community and play a major role in the political, economic, and social development of our region and around the world; and

WHEREAS, UOG, as the only four-year, U.S. accredited, land-grant institution in the Western Pacific, is a public comprehensive university offering 15 master's degree programs and 25 bachelor's degree programs; and

WHEREAS, in June of 2016, the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC) reaffirmed another eight years of accreditation for UOG, guaranteeing that UOG has met the Commission's high standards of quality and effectiveness. UOG received its first eight years of accreditation in 2009, and the new term will last until 2024. This accomplishment marked an unprecedented 16 years of continuous accreditation for UOG; and

WHEREAS, WSCUC, in its July 8, 2016 Action Letter, commended the University for its Good to Great Initiative, its fiscal stewardship, developing an effective relationship with the UOG Board of Regents, its focus on and deep commitment to regional needs and the public good through education, research and service; strengthening first year retention, and creating a remarkably inclusive, collaborative culture focused on good university citizenship; and

WHEREAS, UOG's enrollment in Tuionmikan Semester 2022 is at least 2,851 students; the university manages a complex array of over 272 individual grants of about $26.7 million dollars in FY 2021 supporting projects such as combatting invasive species, addressing health disparities, and providing students with research experiences and financial support; and

WHEREAS, since the declaration of the State of Emergency (public health emergency) for Guam by I Maga'hagan Guahan on March 14, 2020, UOG has continued to assist in several critical support roles to include providing continued support of the UOG Calvo Field House and personnel support for the central Vaccination Clinic in partnership with DPHSS and the Guam Army National Guard for the island's vaccination initiative; continued personnel support through the UOG AmeriCorps at the Tiyan COVID-19 testing site; supported group mass testing for the Homeless Count of 180-volunteer personnel and other groups affected by COVID-19; conducted N95 Fit Testing for the Homeless Coalition and Lighthouse Recovery Center Staff; provided online next step COVID-Ready Caregiver courses in partnership with sixteen (16) organizations impacting six (6) regional islands and over 668 trained individuals; offered tele-health counseling services for local hospitals and health care agencies; offered COVID-19 tele-education in partnership with three (3) primary care groups, ten (10) community-based organizations, and eight (8) academic institutions on Guam, in the region, and in California; supported a large Hagat family affected by COVID-19 and in need of clothing, food, and testing; conducted a health clinic and outreach event for residents at the Gill-Baza and "Zero Down" subdivisions who were considered underserved and at-risk communities; and hosted COVID-19 awareness presentations with the Guam/Micronesia Geriatrics Workforce Enhancement Program; and

WHEREAS, in deliberate and careful planning of student support, classes, and community outreach programs during the public health emergency, UOG has kept internal transmission of the COVID-19 on campus to a minimum while holding mostly online instruction in academic year 2020-2021, and beginning the transition back to face-to-face and hybrid instruction for academic year 2021-2022 in accordance with the University's Continuity of Operations Plan to ensure services continued for students and other customers while maintaining Department of Public Health and Social Services guidelines. Additionally, they established support for contact tracing and group testing for UOG and contact tracing support to the Guam Community College; and

WHEREAS, this year's Charter Day theme, "Charting a Course for New Horizons" recognizes the scope of influence and positive impact the University of Guam has contributed to society through its research, students, and alumni throughout the world. The theme also highlights the University's continuous effort towards becoming the engine of progress in Guam and the region through its mission of "Ina, Desakubre, Setbe - To Enlighten, To Discover, To Serve"; and

WHEREAS, the year 2022 marks the 70th Year Anniversary of the founding of UOG. All throughout the calendar year, UOG will commemorate its Platinum Jubilee through various events, presentations, and outreach programs. The theme adopted for the anniversary celebration is "University of Guam: 70 Years of Transforming Lives and Advancing Communities." Collectively, these activities will highlight the University's critical role in the development of the professional workforce in Guam and the region over the past 70 years, and the continuity of its mission for the next 70 years; and

WHEREAS, Thomas W. Krise, Ph.D., President of the University, appointed the 2022 UOG Charter Day Committee to organize this year's activities, whose membership includes: Norman Analista, Co-Chairperson; David Okada, Co-Chairperson; Anthony Agustin, Jenka Ballesta, Marie Bernudez, Carmelita Blas, Julian Briosos, June Calvo, Francisco Camacho, Dr. Chieh Cheng, Phillip Cruz, Swingly Dismas, Luke Fernandez, Dr. Atsushi Fujimura, Alfred Garrido, Dr. Hyunjong Hahn, Dorathina Herrero, John Howerton, Dr. James Ji, Jonas Macapinlac, Justine Mallan, Abby Martin, Charlene Masivemai, Camille Masulungan, Angelo Paule, Douglas Palmer, John Pineda, Elizher Razon, Kayla Tagueta, Ashley Topasna, Cns Toves, Jessica Urbano, and Tony Villanueva; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Committee on Rules of I Mina'trentai Sais Na Liheslaturan Guahan does hereby, on behalf of I Liheslaturan Guahan and the people of Guam, recognize the 2022 UOG Charter Day Committee for their work in continuing to invest in and strengthen the institution for the benefit of our people, our island, the region, and the world; and congratulate the students, alumni, faculty, staff, and administration of the University of Guam (UOG) on the celebration of the fifty-fourth (54th) year anniversary of its Charter, and the seventieth (70th) year anniversary of its founding; and be it further

RESOLVED, that the Speaker and the Chairperson of the Committee on Rules certify, and the Legislative Secretary attest to, the adoption hereof, and that copies of the same be thereafter transmitted to Mr. Angelo D. Paule, President, UOG Student Government Association; to Ms. Sallie McDonald, President, UOG Staff Council; to Dr. Christopher B. Garcia-Santos, President, UOG Faculty Senate; to Dr. Thomas W. Krise, 11th President of UOG; to Ms. Liza J. Provido, Chairperson of the UOG Board of Regents; and to the Honorable Lourdes A. Leon Guerrero, I Maga'hagan Guahan.
