Comments on Bill No. 15-37 (COR)

Bill No. 15-37 proposes to repeal the requirement for non-manager and non-supervisor employees to attain an alcohol employee license in order to work. As per comments received from the Department of Revenue and Taxation (DRT), the Alcohol Beverage Control (ABC) Card license fee is thirty dollars ($30) and valid for 3 years, the funds of which are deposited into the Alcoholic Beverage Compliance Fees and Fines Special Fund pursuant to 11 GCA, Chapter 3, §3124.1 and §3126. DRT notes that any loss in fees will adversely impact the department's ability to administer and execute the Alcohol Beverage Control Act programs.

Additionally, should Bill No. 15-37 become enacted, DRT fiscally concludes the following high and low range of potential fees lost based on pre and post – COVID market conditions:

- High range of ABC Card Fees potentially impact (Pre – CY 2020) ($73,440)
- Low range of ABC Card Fees potentially impacted (Current) ($61,050)
